Africa Bibliography

Published on behalf of the International African Institute

Editor

Terry A. Barringer, University of Cambridge, UK

This large and authoritative guide to works in African studies has been published under the auspices of the International African Institute annually since 1984. From 2011 a fully searchable, consolidated bibliography will be available to subscribers online.

The Africa Bibliography includes a wide range of material and covers all regions of Africa, including North Africa. It lists works published in English as well as a number of other languages. The bibliography categorises by region, country and subject. It includes an author index and a detailed thematic index.

The Journal of Modern African Studies

Editor

Paul Nugent, University of Edinburgh, UK
Leonardo A. Villalón, University of Florida, USA

The Journal of Modern African Studies offers a quarterly survey of developments in modern African politics and society. Its main emphasis is on current issues in African politics, economies, societies and international relations. It is intended not only for students and academic specialists, but also for general readers and practitioners with a concern for modern Africa, living and working both inside and outside the continent. Editorial policy avoids commitment to any political viewpoint or ideology, but aims at a fair examination of controversial issues in order to promote a deeper understanding of what is happening in Africa today. The journal also includes an invaluable book review section.

International Review of the Red Cross

Published for the International Committee of the Red Cross

Editor-in-Chief

Vincent Bernard, The International Committee of the Red Cross,

Editor

Mariya Nikolova, The International Committee of the Red Cross,

The International Review of the Red Cross promotes reflection on humanitarian law, policy and action in armed conflict and other situations of collective armed violence. A specialized journal in humanitarian law, it endeavours to promote knowledge, critical analysis and development of the law and to contribute to the prevention of violations of rules protecting fundamental rights and values. The Review offers a forum for discussion about contemporary humanitarian action as well as analysis of the causes and characteristics of conflicts so as to give a clearer insight into the humanitarian problems they generate. Finally, the Review informs its readership on questions pertaining to the International Red Cross and Red Crescent Movement and in particular on the activities and policies of the Red Cross.

Leiden Journal of International Law

Published for The Foundation of the Leiden Journal of International Law

Editors-in-Chief

Eric De Brabandere, Leiden University, The Netherlands

Ingo Venzke, Amsterdam Center for International Law, The Netherlands

Firmly established as one of Europe's leading journals in the field, the Leiden Journal of International Law (LJIL) provides a forum for two vital areas, namely international legal theory and international dispute settlement. It is unique in providing the most comprehensive coverage of the world's most important international tribunals in The Hague (such as the ICJ, ICTY, ICC and others) and elsewhere, as well as examining new trends in international legal thinking. LJIL is essential reading for academics and practitioners who need to stay abreast of recent developments in these areas.

Health Economics, Policy and Law

Published in association with LSE Health

Editors

Adam Oliver, London School of Economics and Political Science, UK
Elias Mossialos, London School of Economics and Political Science, UK

International trends highlight the confluence of economics, politics and legal considerations in the health policy process. Health Economics, Policy and Law (HEPL) provides a forum for inter-disciplinary health policy studies, and will be of use to academics, policy makers, health care managers and professionals. HEPL is international in scope, publishing both theoretical and applied work, with articles on all aspects of health policy. HEPL is particularly interested in publishing innovative ideas that promise to contribute to improving health and healthcare policy. Considerable emphasis is placed on rigorous conceptual development and analysis, and on the presentation of empirical evidence that is relevant to the policy process. Review articles and debate sections bring readers in touch with current research developments and issues.

The Journal of African History

Editors

Cheikh A. Babou, University of Pennsylvania, USA

Barbara Cooper, Rutgers University, USA

Lynn M. Thomas, University of Washington, Seattle, USA

Richard Reid, SOAS, University of London, UK

The Journal of African History publishes articles and book reviews ranging widely over the African past, from ancient times to the present. Historical approaches to all time periods are welcome. In recent years increasing prominence has been given to economic, cultural and social history and several articles have explored themes which are also of growing interest to historians of other regions such as: gender roles, demography, health and hygiene, propaganda, legal ideology, labour histories, nationalism and resistance, environmental history, the construction of ethnicity, slavery and the slave trade, and photographs as historical sources. Contributions dealing with pre-colonial historical relationships between Africa and the African diaspora are especially welcome, as are historical approaches to the post-colonial period.

NOTES ON STYLE FOR CONTRIBUTORS

The editors ask authors to observe the following notes on style in preparing their submissions. A full style guide can be downloaded from journals.cambridge.org/JAL.

General

Articles should be no longer than 12,000 words (including footnotes). Please also provide an abstract of no more than 150 words and five or six keywords. Use footnotes, rather than endnotes.

Spelling

Use British English, but with the “ize”, not “ise”, suffix.

Capitalization

Please use lower case for professional titles and generic terms such as government, director, minister, common law. The titles of treaties, acts, agreements, declarations, resolutions, conventions, etc should be capitalized and not italicized.

Foreign words and phrases

Truly foreign words and phrases (except proper nouns) should be italicized and followed by a translation in square brackets. Please do not italicize words, phrases and abbreviations generally accepted in the English language.

Abbreviations

Do not use full stops for abbreviations or for initials within names. Article, chapter, section, ordinance, proclamation, paragraph, etc should be in full and in lower case in the text, but abbreviated in footnotes to art, chap, sec, ord, proc, para etc. Abbreviated forms used in the text must be in full in the first instance, followed by the abbreviated form/acronym in brackets. Per cent to be written in full in the text; use % in footnotes.

Punctuation

Punctuation should be “outside” quotation marks (unless the punctuation is clearly part of the quotation) and footnote cues should come after punctuation. Use “smart” double quotation marks, followed by single quotation marks within a quotation. Quotations more than five lines long in the text should be indented.

Numerals and dates

Numbers and ordinals from one to ten inclusive should be spelled out; after that use digits. However, always use digits for footnotes, percentages and references to sections or pages of a document.

Citations

Give all journal and book titles in full and in italics.

Books

Author's initial and surname Title in Italics (volume or edition, year of publication, publisher) at page number.

Chapters in edited volumes

Author's initial and surname “Chapter/article title in lower case” in Editor's initial and surname (ed) Book Title in Italics (year, publisher) page number of beginning of chapter at page number of quote.

Journal articles

Author's initial and surname “Title in lower case” (year) volume/issue Title of Journal in Italics page number of beginning of article at page number of quote.

Newspapers

Author's initial and surname “Title in lower case” (date of publication) Title of Newspaper (location if deemed necessary) at page number.

Unpublished papers (eg conference papers)

Author's initial and surname “Title in lower case” (paper presented at name of conference, place, date) at page number of quote.

Electronic sources

Cite using the phrase “available at: <<http://...>>”, followed by the date last accessed in brackets. Please remove all hyperlinks.

Cases

Cite cases in accordance with the normal practice in the relevant jurisdiction. Case names should be italicized.

Abbreviating and cross-referencing citations

Author's surname Abbreviated Title in Appropriate Format for Book / Article etc, above/below at note XX. Do not use op cit, loc cit, supra, infra to refer to other footnotes. Use “ibid” to refer to an immediately preceding work with the same page number. Use “id” to refer to an immediately preceding author, or immediately preceding work with a different page number.
