The Soul of Mbira Music and Tradition of the Shona People of Zimbabwe

Paul F. Berliner

The mbira (finger harp) is one of the most popular instruments in Africa. Berliner brings an awareness of the mbira as both a musical instrument and a symbol of a culture. This is an ethnomusicological study analyzing mbira music in the context of such related aspects as its history, folklore, poetry, and transmission of techniques and repertory, and the role and deep meaning of the mbira in Shona culture. Finally, Berliner describes the contemporary renaissance of the music as a function of the African nationalist movement.
