

Index

---

- acquittal on grounds of insanity, 154, 156, 161, 167, 173
- Act for Consolidating and Amending the Law Relating to Prisons in Ireland (1826). See Prisons (Ireland) Act (1826)
- Act for the Better Care and Maintenance of Lunatics, Being Paupers or Criminals in England. See County Asylum (Wynn's) Act (1808)
- Act for the Formation, Regulation and Government of Convict Prisons (1854). See Convict Prisons (Ireland) Act (1854)
- alienists. See psychiatry
- archival and official sources, 3–7, 27–28, 108–9, 207, 231–32, 235, 256
- assessing lunacy, 205, 237
- expert witnesses, 4, 151, 167–74, 198
  - judges, 167
  - prison medical officers, 52–54, 168–74, 212, 241, 251
  - psychiatrists, 167, 228–32
  - removal to 'specialist' facilities, 139–41, 174
- Association for the Improvement of Prisons and Prison Discipline in Ireland, 5, 25, 34
- Association of Gaol Surgeons (Ireland), 105, 114
- asylums
- asylum design. See prison and asylum design
  - Broadmoor Asylum. See Broadmoor Asylum
  - county and district asylums, 11, 156–59, 180–82, 222–24; see also County Asylum (Wynn's) Act (1808); Irish Lunatic Asylums for the Poor Act (1817); Lunacy (Ireland) Act (1821)
  - Dundrum Criminal Lunatic Asylum. See Dundrum Criminal Lunatic Asylum
  - perceived benefits
    - early release, 224
    - milder discipline, 204, 222
    - relative ease of escape, 222–24
  - private asylums, 11–12, 159
  - public asylums, 3, 11, 81, 162, 179–82, 205, 222–24
  - voluntary asylums, 11–12
- Auburn Penitentiary (USA), 32
- authority and decision-making, 4, 28–29, 60–62, 152, 251–52
- asylum doctors, 192
- boards of superintendence, 251
- local magistrates, 175–77, 182
- prison chaplains, 42–43, 51–52, 54–55, 61, 76, 214
- prison medical officers, 52–54, 62–64, 80–81, 192, 251
- Baker, Henry
- transportation and mental health, 46
- Baker, Dr John, 240
- Lombrosian theories, rejection of, 145
- Belfast House of Correction, 17, 39
- separate confinement, 28
- Bentham, Jeremy
- criminal mind, 26
  - panopticon, 14, 32, 35
- Bethlem Hospital, 12, 46–47, 121
- conditions, 159
  - removals to, 161, 213, 224
  - specialist facilities, 154–56, 160–62
- Better Government of Convict Prisons Act (1850), 61
- Birmingham Borough Gaol
- excessive punishment, 114
  - implementation of separate confinement, 49, 51, 61
- Blaker, Dr E.S.
- real or feigned insanity, 233–34

- boards of superintendence, 13, 18, 38
 authority and decision-making, 251
 prison rules and regulations, 62, 104
- 'born criminal' theory, 85, 144–46
- Bourke, Charles F., 18, 79, 98, 139, 245
- 'breaking out'
 female prisoners, 127–29, 218–19
- British Medical Journal*
 insane convicts, 149
 isolation of prison doctors, 260
 prison conditions, 260
 psychiatric techniques, role in prisons, 260
- Broadmoor Asylum, 12, 142, 178
 conditions, 229
 escapes, 223
 insane convicts, 164–66, 182
 Queen's Pleasure patients, 163
 real or feigned insanity, 225
- Bucknill, Dr John Charles, 160–61, 168, 175, 194, 226–28
- Burt, Rev. John, 23–24, 49, 215
- Campbell, Dr John, 120–21, 125, 137, 210
 dietary punishments, 131 habitual criminals, 135–36
 individualised assessment, 240
 positivism, 85
 real or feigned insanity, 230, 233, 237–38, 240
 separate confinement, 123–25
- Carnarvon Committee (1863), 78, 88, 90
 hard labour, 91–95
 recommendations, 89–90, 92–93, 95, 100 uniformity of prison punishments, 92, 96
- Central Criminal Lunatic Asylum (Ireland) Act (1845), 162
- centralisation of penal policy, 13–14, 79–80, 234
- Chesterton, George Laval, 33, 70, 92
- children and juveniles, 11, 30, 41, 100, 126, 144–45
- Clonmel Borstal, 251
- Evangelical Society for the Improvement of Prison Discipline and the Reformation of Juvenile Offenders, 5, 34
- Parkhurst Prison, 41, 121 suicide and suicide attempts, 49
- classification of mental illness. See taxonomy of mental conditions
- Clay, Rev. John, 1, 30–31, 33, 49
- Clay, Rev. W.L., 1, 95
- Clerkenwell House of Detention, 64 suicide or suicide attempts, 72, 173
- Coldbath Fields House of Correction female convicts, 70, 92
 silent system, 33
- Collie, Sir John
 malingering, 207
- colonial nature of Irish convict system, 4, 8, 13
- Commission on Criminal Lunacy (1882), 141–42
- Committee of Inquiry into Doubtful Cases of Insanity Amongst Convicts in Ireland (1904), 250
- confinement. See separate confinement
- Conolly, Dr John, 168, 171, 228
- Convict Prison Directorate (Ireland), 18
- Convict Prisons (Ireland) Act (1854), 63
- Cooter, Roger
 feigning insanity, 211–12
- corporal punishment, 92, 112, 115–16, 131, 248
- Corry Connellan, J., 78, 90
- county and district asylums, 11, 180–82
 escapes, 222–24
- County Asylum (Wynn's) Act (1808), 155
- Crawford, William
 separate system, 24, 34, 36–37, 40–41, 43
- crime, degeneracy and mental unfitness, relationship between, 2–3, 9, 52–53, 57–59, 87, 136
- 'criminal lunatics'
 confinement, 179–83
 custody of, 154–56, 158–67, 169–70
 lunatic criminals distinguished, 161, 192
- criminal lunatic asylums escapes, 222; see also Broadmoor Asylum; Dundrum Criminal Lunatic Asylum
- Criminal Lunatics Act (1800), 142–43, 154
- Criminal Lunatics Act (1884), 142–43, 181
- criminals becoming insane during sentences, 163
- transfer of, 155–58, 165, 178; see also previous instances of mental breakdown
- criminology theory, 87
 'born criminal' theory, 85
 rejection of, 144–46
 positivism, 86
- Crofton, Sir Walter, 4, 66–68, 78
 centralisation and uniformity, 79
 real or feigned insanity, 210
- cruelty and abuse of power by prison officials, 49, 82–83, 114–16
- proselytism, 31, 52

- Dangerous Lunatic Act (1838), 156
- 'dangerous lunatics', 156, 180
- Davie, Neil, 9, 87, 136
- Davitt, Michael, 5, 7, 235, 248
- deinstitutionalisation
 England, 257
 Ireland, 257–58
- Departmental Committee on Prisons
 Report. See Gladstone Report (1895)
- depression, 16, 33, 43–45, 72, 76, 117, 146–47, 216
- deterrence-based approach, 17–18, 20, 116
- Dickens, Charles, 2, 7, 33, 36
- diet, dietary punishment and food
 allowances, 82, 89, 100, 113–31 policy recommendations, 95–98 prison medical officers' discretionary power, 99
- Directors of Convict Prisons (England), 18, 88, 149, 163
- Directors of Convict Prisons (Ireland), 4, 66, 102, 216
- drunkenness, 115
 female prisoners, 71, 73, 107, 185, 189, 218
 habitual offenders, 135
 Ireland, 19
- du Cane, Sir Edmund, 18, 180, 243
 centralisation and uniformity, 79, 98, 103
 diet, dietary punishment and food allowances, 98–99
- Dublin Model Prison (Mountjoy). See Mountjoy Convict Prison (Dublin)
- Dundrum Criminal Lunatic Asylum, 12, 56, 69, 166–67
 escapes, 222
 real or feigned insanity, 225, 239
- duration of separation, 24, 37, 40–41, 52, 64, 67, 75, 88
- Eastern State Penitentiary (Philadelphia) (USA), 14, 32–34, 36, 43, 48; see also Pennsylvania system
- epilepsy, 46, 51, 113, 118, 140, 144, 146, 149, 193–94, 218
- escape
 asylums, 222–24
 removals between the prison and asylum, 204
- Evangelical Society for the Improvement of Prison Discipline and the Reformation of Juvenile Offenders, 5, 34
- exacerbation of mental despair and illness, 2–3, 28, 84, 131
- excessive religious teachings, 43; see also proselytism
- expert (medical) witnesses, 4, 173, 198 doctors, 151
 assessing lunacy, 167–74
 psychiatrists, 168
- failure of separate system, 75
 early experiments, 34–36, 88, 243
 Pentonville, 45–48, 102
- Falkiner, Frederick Richard, 95, 107, 134, 187
- feigned insanity, 22, 28, 44–45, 147, 150, 191, 201, 203–4
 assessment, 210–11, 239–42
 cruelty and forced confessions, 234–37
 observation cells, 229–31
 detecting feigning, 203–4, 231–33, 250
 observation cells, 229–31
 prevalence of feigning, 206 prisoner agency, 204–5 prisons, 207–9
 separate system
 assessment, 212–22
 female prisoners, 218–19
 Liverpool Borough Gaol, 217–18
 Mountjoy Prison, 215–17
 Pentonville Model Prison, 213–15
 suicide attempts, 219–20
 uncertainty in assessing authenticity, 205–6, 226–29, 232–33
- female prisoners, 6, 8
 'breaking out', 127–29, 218–19
 Brixton Prison, 69
 drunkenness, 70, 73, 107, 185, 189, 218
 feigning and malingering, 218–19
 Grangegorman Female Penitentiary, 72
 Liverpool Borough Gaol, 70, 106
 mental capacity to withstand punishments, 131–33
 Millbank, 70–71
 Mountjoy Female Prison, 69–72
 prostitution, 73, 106, 185, 187, 189
 recidivism, 34–74
 refuges, 71–72, 110–11
 separate confinement, 28, 48, 69–73
 treadwheel, 92
- Field, Rev. John, 48–49
- Fielding Blandford, Dr George, 200, 222
- Fielding, Henry, 26
- fitness to plead, 154, 172
- fitness to undergo punishment, 104, 111–13, 124

- Fitzpatrick, Sir Jeremiah, 25 medical and scientific principles, 30
 prison conditions, 26, 29
- Fletcher, Susan Willis, 184, 221
- Forsythe, Bill (William James), 13
- Foucault, Michel, 4
- Fry, Elizabeth, 25, 46
- Garland, David, 4
 general paralysis of the insane (GPI), 189–91
- General Prisons (Ireland) Act (1877), 79, 81, 181
- General Prisons Board (Ireland), 18, 79, 104, 110
 confinement of insane prisoners, 151, 199
 diet, dietary punishment and food
 allowances, 99–100, 115
 Medical Inspector to the General Prisons Board, 105
 medical releases, 120
 prison conditions, 245, 249
 real or feigned insanity, 239
 suicide attempts, 105–6, 119
- Gladstone Report (1895), 3, 146, 201
 corporal punishment, 116, 248
 impact, 245, 250–51, 253–54
 Irish prisons, 248
 mental disorder amongst prisoners prison medical officers' workload, 246
 prisons producing mental disorder, 79, 116, 246–47
 professional collaboration, 198 training in lunacy, 200
 witnesses former prisoners, 248
 prison medical officers, 246–48
- Gordon, Mary, 7
- Gover, Dr Robert M., 82, 125, 150, 198
 female prisoners, 129
 imbecility, 141, 143
 medical discharges, 120
 prison medical officers' workload, 246
 real or feigned insanity, 203–4, 230, 240
- Grand Juries, 18, 39, 79
 implementation of separation, 38
- Grangegorman Convict Depot, 56–57
- Grangegorman Female Penitentiary, 62,
 66, 69, 72, 157–58
- Great Famine (1845–52), 12, 16, 19, 40, 53, 60, 66, 107–8, 193
- Grey, Sir George, 57–58
- Gunn, Dr John, 258–59
- Guy, Dr William Augustus, 82 psychiatric categories, 144
 separate confinement, 142–44
- habitual criminals. See recidivism
- Habitual Criminals Acts (1869), 79, 134;
see also Prevention of Crimes Act (1871)
- Hanway, Jonas, 26, 29, 32
- Harcourt, Sir William, 182–83, 195
- hard labour, 91–95, 115
 capacity to withstand, 109–10
 first convictions, 108–9
 public work prisons, 124–25
- Hatchell, Dr George, 194, 223, 228
- Henriques, Ursula, 27
- hereditary predisposition to insanity, 49, 53, 124, 129, 144, 146–48
- Hitchins, Henry Martin, 15, 51–57
 female prisoners, 66, 70
- Hood, Dr Charles, 159–61, 177
- Hopkins, Tighe, 244
- House of Lords Select Committee on Prison Discipline in England. See
 Carnarvon Committee (1863)
- Howard Association, 5, 146, 174, 197, 244, 249
- Howard, John, 25–26 prison conditions for insane, 26
- Humanitarian League, 244
- Ignatieff, Michael, 4, 13, 27
 implementation of separate confinement
 Belfast House of Correction, 28
 insanitary conditions, 26, 32, 103, 245 insanity plea, 151–52, 167–74, 182
 insanity rates, 3, 14, 33, 47, 86, 146, 175, 199–200, 262
 Pentonville, 65
 responsibility, 6, 149, 249
 separate system, 27–28, 36, 75–76
- institutions of confinement
 asylums, 9–13, 21
 prisons, 8–9
 workhouses, 10, 12–13, 21
- Irish and English prison systems compared,
 4–5
- Irish Lunatic Asylums for the Poor Act (1817), 156
- Irish Penal Reform Trust, 262
- Irish Poor Law Act (1838), 12
- Irish prisoners in England, 187–89, 245
- irritability as a category of mental disorder, 45, 102–3, 122, 126–27, 191

- Jebb, Sir Joshua, 40, 65, 88, 163
 female prisoners, 69
- Justices of the Peace, 79, 157
- Kelly, Dr Jeremiah, 83, 113, 137, 216
- Kimberley Commission (1878), 117, 248
 detention periods, 120 prison officer cruelty, 244
 real or feigned insanity, 230, 235
 separation of weak-minded prisoners, 122
- Kingsmill, Rev. Joseph, 15, 43, 47, 214
- labour
 Ireland, 31
 oakum picking, 67, 89, 92–93, 95, 108–9, 137, 140
 treadwheel exercise, 30–31, 92–95, 100–1, 108–9, 115, 236, 251; see also hard labour
- Lancaster Asylum, 186, 189
- Lancet*, 155
 accommodating the insane in prisons, 151
 hard labour, 92
 malingering, 207, 209, 231
- Laurie, Peter, 37, 47, 49, 75
- legitimate punishment of prisoners, 1, 24–27, 29
- Leicester Gaol
 excessive punishment, 114
 implementation of separate confinement, 16, 49, 51
- Lentaigne, John, 78, 221
- Liverpool Borough Prison, 186
 female prisoners, 6, 70
 Implementation of separation confinement, 28
 real or feigned insanity, 217–18
 transfer of mentally ill prisoners, 256
- local magistrates, 13, 65, 68
 authority and decision-making, 4, 64, 83, 175–77
 transfer of mentally ill prisoners, 155, 157, 173, 181–82, 229
- local prisons, 13–14, 246–47
 conditions, 77–78, 93, 103–4
 diet, dietary punishment and food allocation, 96–98
 feigned insanity, 207, 216
 General Prisons (Ireland) Act (1877), 181
 hard labour, 93–95, 98, 101
 management, 18, 37, 63, 79, 104–5, 181, 245, 251 medical management of mental disorder, 139–41, 150, 152, 166, 178, 185
 suicide attempts, 119
 mortality rates, 195
 prison population, 19, 107–8, 146, 165, 199
 prison surgeons, 62, 81, 84–85
 Prisons (Ireland) Act (1856), 62
 Prisons (Ireland) Bill (1866), 90
 Prisons Act (1865), 61, 90, 104
 Prisons Act (1877), 181
 recidivism, 89, 131, 135
 separate confinement, 16–17, 28, 89–90, 92, 101, 153
- Lombroso, Caesar
 ‘born criminal’ theory, 85, 144–46
- Long, Frederick, 48
- Lunacy (Ireland) Act (1821), 156
- Lunacy Board for Scotland, 142
- Lunatic Acts (1845), 155
- Lunatic Asylum Act (1817). See Irish Lunatic Asylums for the Poor Act (1817)
- Lunatic Asylum Act (1821). See Lunacy (Ireland) Act (1821)
- Lunatic Asylums (Ireland) Act (1875), 181
- lunatic criminals, 87, 135, 159, 161, 180, 192
- MacDonagh, Oliver, 13
- MacDonnell, Dr Hercules, 81, 100, 103
 Lombrosian theories, rejection of, 145
- malingering
 detection
 observation cells, 229–31
 military context, 206–8; see also feigned insanity
- management of disruptive and dangerous behaviour, 113–17, 199–200
- management of mental disorder, 28, 116–17
 differentiating between symptoms insanity, 120–22
 invalid prisoners, 122–23
 weak-minded convicts, 122–24
- inappropriateness of prisons, 243–44
- local prisons, 119, 139–41, 150, 152, 166, 178, 185
- prison medical officers’ workload, 117–18, 124–25, 175
- Gladstone Report, 246
- investigations into attempted suicides, 118–19
- medical discharge, 119–20 see also taxonomy of mental conditions

- mania, 16, 25, 37, 43–45, 117, 144, 185, 189, 196, 223, 231 see also religious mania
- mark system, 4, 49, 66–69, 78, 88
- Maryborough Invalid Prison, 117–18, 122–23, 139, 223, 250
- Maybrick, Florence, 2, 7, 140, 184
- McCabe, Frederick, 105
- McConville, Seán, 86, 103
- McDonnell, Dr Robert, 63, 80, 125
assessment of lunacy, 172, 174, 209, 232–33, 252
penal punishment, 112–13, 127
real or feigned insanity, 129–31, 233, 240
- McMurdo, Gilbert, 170–71
- medical discharges, 45–46, 110, 118–20
- 'mental deficiency institutions', 256
- Millbank Prison, 35–37
female prisoners, 71, 131
- Milner, William, 65, 81, 96
- Mitchell, Dr Arthur, 142–45
- modifications to the separate system, 28
evangelicals, 29–31
key reformers, 25
Pentonville Model Prison, 23–24
promotion of separation, 26–27
utilitarians, 29; see also Carnarvon Committee (1863); Royal Commission on Penal Servitude (1863)
- Monro, Dr Edward Thomas, 228
- Morrison, Rev. William Douglas, 7
- mortality rates, 14, 36, 45, 48, 189, 191, 195–96
- Mountjoy Convict Prison (Dublin), 2, 14, 23, 39–40, 51
chaplains, role of, 51–52, 54–55 prison medical officers, role of, 52–54
real or feigned insanity, 215–17
selection of convicts, 27–55, 57
- Mountjoy Female Prison, 69–72, 132
- National Imbecile Asylums, 142–43 nationalisation, 18, 79–80, 95
diet, dietary punishment and food allowances, 98–99, 115
Prison Commission, 79
prison medical doctors, role of, 84–85, 114
- Neild, James, 25
- New Poor Law (1834), 12
- Newgate Gaol (London), 170–72
- Newgate Prison (Dublin), 38, 216
- Nicolson, David, 80, 125, 133–34, 198, 219
'breaking out', 127–29
- Lombrosian theories, rejection of, 145
prison medical officers' workload, 247
real or feigned insanity, 238–40
- Nihil, Rev. Daniel, 37
- Norman, Dr Conolly, 200, 210, 231
- Nugent, Dr John, 157, 169, 223
- Nugent, Rev. James, 106–7, 111, 251
- O'Keefe, Dr Patrick, 82, 210, 220, 235
- oakum picking, 67, 89, 92–93, 95, 108–9, 137, 140
- observation cells
England, 229–30
Ireland, 230–31
- Office of the Inspector of Lunatic Asylums (Ireland), 194
- Orange, Dr William, 169–70
- origins of separate confinement
Pennsylvania system, 14, 23, 27, 32 see also Eastern State Penitentiary (Philadelphia) (USA)
Pentonville Model Prison, 14, 23, 25
- outdoor exercise
current lack of, 261–62
early policy reform, 65, 71, 96, 104, 243
Kimberley Commission, 117
separate system, 32–33, 39
- overcrowding
asylums, 159, 191, 252
prisons, 18, 59, 66, 106, 108, 260
- pardons, 41, 45–46
- Parnell, Charles Stewart, 100, 245
- Patmore, Dr Tennyson, 204, 212
- Paul, Sir George Onesiphorus, 24, 30
- Penal Servitude Act (1857), 88
- Penal Servitude Act (1864), 88
- penal-welfarism, 256
- Penitentiary Act (1779), 24
- Pennsylvania system, 14–18, 23, 32 see also Eastern State Penitentiary (Philadelphia) (USA)
- Pentonville Model Prison, 14, 23, 34, 37, 40–41
feigned insanity, 213–15
insanity in, 213–15
moral and spiritual reformation, 42
staged punishments, 41
- Pentonville Prison Act (1842), 43
- period in separation. See duration of separation
- Philipstown Prison (King's County), 40, 67, 102, 122, 126–27, 166, 216–17
- physical condition of prisoners, 108–10
assessment and management, 120, 124

- physical condition of prisoners (cont.)
 diet, dietary punishment and food allowances, 95, 100
 female prisoners, 110–11
 Great Famine, 193–94
 separate system, 48, 58, 88–89
- plank beds, 89, 100
- policy
 centralisation, 13–14, 79–80, 234
 deterrence-based approach, 17–18, 20, 116
 effectiveness, 77
 penal approaches, 17–18, 58–60, 77–80, 85–86, 88–93, 97–98, 100, 188, 252–53 punitive regimes, 77, 189
 recommendations for reform
 Carnarvon Committee (1863), 78, 88–93
 diet, dietary punishment and food allowances, 95–100
 hard labour, 91–95
 plank beds, 100
 Royal Commission (1863), 78, 88–89
 Royal Commission on Irish Prisons (1884–85), 90, 105, 245
- political prisoners, 7–9, 245
 Irish prisoners in England, 245
 Irish prisons, 249–50, 255
- Poor Laws. See New Poor Law (1834); Irish Poor Law Act (1838)
- positivist science, 77, 86–87, 253
- Prevention of Crimes Act (1871), 134
- previous instances of mental breakdown, 55, 72, 75, 138, 152, 161–62, 204–5, 212–13; see also criminals becoming insane during sentences
- Prison Act (1786), 62
- Prison Act (1865), 5, 61, 78, 80, 90
- Prison Act (1877), 79, 81, 181
- prison administration, 18–19
- prison and asylum design, 16–18, 32, 260
 Broadmoor Asylum, 163
 Dundrum Central Criminal Asylum, 162 mental health, impact on, 16
 panopticon design, 15, 32, 35
 Pentonville Model Prison, 14–16
- prison and mental breakdown, relationship between, 2–3, 9, 52–53, 57–59, 87, 136
- prison chaplains, 20, 28
 authority and decision-making, 61, 76
 Mountjoy Convict Prison, 51–52, 54–55
 Pentonville Model Prison, 42–43, 214
 separate confinement, 33, 48–49
- Prison Commission, 18, 79, 118
- prison medical officers, 9, 20–21, 28, 60–62, 104–5
 assessing lunacy, 52–54, 168–74, 212, 241, 251
 authority and decision-making, 52–54, 62–64, 80–81, 192, 251 commitment to prison work, 83–84, 117–18
 conscientiousness, 21–22
 criticisms of prison system, 259–60 discretionary powers over diet, 99 dual loyalty, 20–21, 84–87
 investigations into attempted suicides, 118–19
 professionalisation, 81–82
 research, 21–22
 rules and regulations, 80, 84–85
 medical visitations, 104 negative impact, 114
 salaries, 84
 training in lunacy, 200–1
 workload, 83, 117–18, 120, 175, 246
 feigning and malingering, 207, 209, 212, 220–21, 241, 250–51
- prison memoirs, 7, 108, 183–85, 231, 235, 256
- prison population, 11
 current situation, 258, 260–61 decline, 18, 79, 102, 107–8 expansion, 7, 20, 76, 87, 199
 female, 6, 70
- prison reform
 evangelicals, 29–31
 key reformers, 25
 promotion of separation, 26–27
 treatment of the insane, 26
 utilitarians, 29
- Prison Reform Trust (England), 262
- Prisoners (Ireland) Act (1787), 156
- prisoners' experiences, 1–2, 7, 256
 hard labour, 108
 malingering, 231, 235
 removal to asylums, 183–85
- prisoners unfit for reform, 74–75
- Prisons (Ireland) Act (1826), 62
- Prisons (Ireland) Act (1840), 24
- Prisons (Ireland) Act (1856), 62
- Prisons (Ireland) Bill (1866), 90
- Prisons Act (1839), 24
- proselytism, 31
- prostitution, 73, 106, 185, 187, 189
- psychiatry, 25, 200
 assessment of lunacy, 167, 228–32

- criminologists, collaboration with, 198
 expert witnesses, 168
 prison psychiatry, development of, 252–53, 262
   Ireland, 22
   specialised asylum treatments, 186 psychological and psychoanalytic approaches, 98, 167, 256 public works prisons, 17, 47, 124
   conditions, 124
   diet, dietary punishment and food allocations, 97 removal on medical grounds, 126
 Queen's Pleasure patients, 163, 205
 Rainhill Lunatic Asylum
   drunkenness, 135
   general paralysis of the insane, 189–91 transfer between prison and asylum, 187–89, 223
 rates of crime, 7, 10, 54, 76
 Reading Gaol
   implementation of separate confinement, 28, 48–49
 recidivism, 7, 19, 65, 76, 79, 89, 107, 134–35, 144
   Habitual Criminals Act (1869), 79, 134 irredeemability, 136
   malingerers, 237
   Prevention of Crimes Act (1871), 134
   women, 73–74
 refugees
   female prisoners, 71–72, 110–11, 127, 132–33
 religious conversions through torture, 31 religious mania, 37, 43, 133 removal to 'specialist' facilities. See specialist facilities for insane prisoners removals. See transfer to 'specialist' facilities; transfer between prison and asylum; transfer of insane prisoners to asylums reporting of mental disorder, 28, 44, 246 feigning, 209, 219
 Richmond General Penitentiary, Dublin, 24, 31, 34–35
 Royal Commission (1853), 50
 Royal Commission on Penal Servitude (1863), 17, 78, 88
 Royal Commission on Prisons in Ireland (1884), 81, 105, 114, 150, 245
   real or feigned insanity, 210
   transfer of prisoners, 122
   unsanitary conditions, 245
 Rush, Dr Benjamin, 32
 Russell, Rev. William Whitworth, 24, 34
   separate system, 36–37, 40–41, 43
 Rynd, Dr Francis, 55, 75, 216
   real or feigned insanity, 216
   separate system, 52–54
 Saunders, Janet, 136, 140, 185
   authority and decision-making, 152, 177
 scientific criminology, 9; see also crime, degeneracy and mental unfitness, relationship between Select Committee on Prison Discipline, 58 self-harm, 22, 25, 44–45, 207, 210, 219, 261
 separate confinement
   Birmingham Borough Gaol, 49, 51, 61
   critics, 23–24, 27, 255
   current use of, 260 development of separate system, 13–18
   duration of separation, 24, 37, 40–41, 52, 64, 67, 75, 88
   feigned insanity
     assessment, 212–22
     female prisoners, 218–19
     Liverpool Borough Gaol, 217–18
     Mountjoy Prison, 215–17
     Pentonville Model Prison, 213–15
     suicide attempts, 219–20
   female prisoners, 28, 48, 69–73
   insanity rates, 27–28, 36, 75–76
   Leicester Gaol, 16, 49, 51
   Liverpool Borough Prison, 28
   local prisons, 16–17, 28, 89–90, 92, 101, 153
   Mountjoy Convict Prison, 14; see also Mountjoy Convict Prison (Dublin) origins Pennsylvania system, 14, 27, 32
   outdoor exercise, 32–33, 39
   Pentonville Model Prison, 14, 25; see also Pentonville Model Prison physical condition of prisoners, 48, 58, 88–89
   prison design, 14–17
   Reading Gaol, 28, 48–49
   silent system compared, 27, 32–36, 38 supporters, 24–25, 27
 Shepherd, Jade, 229
 silent system, 32
   Ireland, 33
   separate system compared, 27, 32–36, 38
 Sim, Joe, 9, 20, 84
 Sing Sing Penitentiary (USA), 32

- Social Science Association, 5
- specialist facilities for insane prisoners, 158–59
- Bethlem Hospital, 155 see also Bethlem Hospital
  - Broadmoor Asylum, 163 see also Broadmoor Asylum
  - Dundrum Central Criminal Asylum, 162; see also Dundrum Criminal Lunatic Asylum
  - England, 154–56, 159
  - Ireland, 156–59, 162; see also transfer to ‘specialist’ facilities
- Spike Island Public Works Prison, 40, 55–56, 67, 83
- brutality, 125
  - diet, dietary punishment and food allocation, 97, 99, 113
  - hard labour, 137, 140
  - invalid prisoners, 122–23
  - Kimberley Commission, 245
- staged punishments
- Mountjoy Convict Prison (Dublin), 66
  - Pentonville Model Prison, 41
  - State of the Lunatic Poor in Ireland* (1843), 157
- suffragists, 9; see also political prisoners
- suicide/attempted suicide, 22, 57, 149–50
- feigning and malingering suicide, 219–220
  - investigations, 118–19
  - responsibility, 149
- supporters of separate confinement, 1, 24–27
- Tallack, William, 244, 249; see also Howard Association
- taxonomy of mental conditions, 22, 87, 125–26
- categories
    - criminality, 114–29, 133–34
    - female prisoners, 131–33
    - imbecility, 141–44
    - recidivists, 135–36, 144
    - weak-minded prisoners, 136–44
  - language, 126–27
    - female prisoners, 127–29
- ticket-of-leave system, 64, 72, 89, 224
- time spent in separation. See duration of separation
- training in management of lunacy, 22, 87, 200–1, 228
- transfer between prison and asylum, 150–51
- criminals becoming insane after sentencing, 177–78
  - England, 181–82
  - escape opportunities, 204
  - female prisoners, 188–89
  - Ireland, 180–81
  - Irish prisoners in England, 187
  - prisoners’ experiences, 183–86
  - processes of removal, 174–75
    - local magistrates, 175–77, 182
    - prison medical officers, 175
  - transfer of insane prisoners to asylums, 26, 46–47, 103, 256–58
  - transfer to ‘specialist’ facilities, 139–41
  - transportation
    - disruption to, 17, 25, 64
    - mental health of convicts, 46, 56, 66
  - treadwheel, 30–31, 82, 92–95, 100, 108–9, 115, 236, 251
    - female prisoners, 92
    - unproductive labour, 101
  - treatment and management strategies. See management of mental disorder
  - trial proceedings involving the insanity plea, 151–52, 182
    - expert witnesses, 167–74
    - Irish cases, 169
  - Tuke, Dr Daniel Hack, 226–28
- urbanisation, 9–11, 244
- US prison regimes, 27, 34, 36, 39, 48
- violence among prisoners, 2, 56, 73, 123–24, 126–30, 134, 138–39, 144, 170, 178–79, 184–88, 190–91, 194, 196–98, 221, 226, 236, 240–41, 261–62
- Wakefield Prison
- diet, dietary punishment and food allocation, 95
  - medical discharges, 110
  - prison design, 16, 65
  - real or feigned insanity, 236
  - separation, 65, 96
- Wakefield, Henry, 64, 72, 173
- Walker, Dr George
- prison medical officers’ workload, 246–47
- Watson, Stephen, 9, 87
- malingering, 229, 232
  - ‘weak-minded prisoners’, 19, 44, 49, 56, 75–76, 121–25, 131, 136–44, 147, 161, 204, 225, 243, 248–50, 256
  - Kimberley Commission (1878), 122
  - malingers, 228, 237–40, 249–51

- White, Dr Francis, 37–39, 157–58, 162, 169
- Wiener, Martin J., 20–21, 85–86, 133, 234
- Wilde, Oscar, 2, 7, 21, 138
- Winslow, Dr Forbes, 168, 170, 172
real or feigned insanity, 232
- women. See female prisoners
- workhouses, 10, 12–13, 21, 52, 64, 135
diet, 96
transfer of mentally ill patients to, 141, 154, 157, 176–77, 180, 195, 256
- Young, Dr James, 80, 83, 117

