Language Variation and Change

From 1989, this prestigious new journal will be published three times a year.

In recent years, variationism has developed into a coherent approach to the study of language in use. And now there will be a journal devoted exclusively to this major area of study.

Language Variation and Change will be essential reading for

- linguists • phonologists • psychologists
- sociolinguists • historical linguists • psycholinguists
- dialectologists • anthropologists • educators

Volume 1, 1989 (ISSN 0954-3945)
