The publisher apologises that upon publication of volume 67 issue 3 of International Review of Social History, the article “Full Rights” Feminists in South Asia: Freedom, Equality, and Justice by Samita Sen was missed out of the collection of For the Many: A Review Dossier.

Though missing from the issue the article is still available alongside the rest of the collection on Cambridge Core <https://www.cambridge.org/core/journals/international-review-of-social-history/collections/review-dossiers/review-dossier-for-the-many>
