

European Journal of Political Research

Official Journal of the European Consortium for Political Research

Editors: Mogens N. Pedersen,
Michael Laver

The European Journal of Political Research publishes original articles or English-language translations of major articles in other languages by political scientists and other scholars engaged in political research who are affiliated with European institutions of higher learning. The majority of articles published are of a broadly theoretical or comparative nature. The work of scholars not affiliated with European institutions is also published when it constitutes part of a collective enterprise with European scholars, or when it deals with European comparative politics and international relations. The journal also publishes review articles on significant books and other publications, as well as on current ongoing research in specific areas of political science, short research notes, and news and announcements of activities of the European Consortium for Political Research.

European Journal of Political Research is indexed/abstracted in The International Bibliography of the Social Sciences, International Political Science Abstracts, Historical Abstracts + America History + Life, Sociological Abstracts, Social Sciences Citation Index, Research Alert, Current Contents/Social & Behavioral Sciences

PARLIAMENTARY AFFAIRS

A Journal of Comparative Politics

Receive your own copy of Parliamentary Affairs the established quarterly journal, full of lively and topical articles written by political commentators, politicians and academics. Parliamentary Affairs covers all aspects of government and politics concerning Parliament and parliamentary systems in Britain and throughout the world.

This year's volume includes an issue covering the international debate on abortion, and to mark the 50th anniversary of the Hansard Society, an issue which is devoted to the last half century of British Government, with an eye to the future...

David Butler, Nuffield College, University of Oxford: 'I find more articles worth reading in Parliamentary Affairs than I do in any other academic journal.'

Take advantage of our special offer to receive a free sample copy, and see for yourself how valuable and authoritative Parliamentary Affairs actually is.

Notes for Contributors

1 All contributions should be sent to: The Editors, British Journal of Political Science, University of Essex, Wivenhoe Park, Colchester, Essex CO4 3SQ, UK. They should not be sent to the Cambridge University Press or to the Editorial Assistant.

2 Articles submitted to the Journal should in general be between 5,000 and 12,000 words (or equivalent in tables and figures) in length. An abstract not exceeding 120 words is required.

3 Notes and Comments are welcome. A Note should contain a body of original information, a new method for doing something or a new idea (speculation, argument, proof, etc.) presented in a brief and unadorned form without inessential commentary. Comments containing criticisms of articles published in the Journal and additional thoughts on them will be considered for early publication, especially if they are short – say, under 1,000 words.

4 Most issues of the Journal contain a Review Article – either a detailed discussion of a single book or a review of the state of some area of the discipline. Review Articles submitted without prior consultation will be considered for publication, but in their own interest contributors would be well advised not to prepare a Review Article specially for the Journal without first getting in touch with the Editors.

5 Contributors should note the Journal's editorial policy, which is as stated inside the front cover.

6 Authors of articles and Review Articles receive twenty-five free offprints. Additional copies may be bought if they are ordered at proof stage.

7 Submission of an article is taken to imply that it has not been previously published and is not being considered for publication elsewhere. In the interest of authors, copyright is normally assigned to the Cambridge University Press.

8 Authors should submit FOUR COPIES of their articles. Contributions must be typed and may be reproduced in any clearly legible form. The preferred size of paper is A4 (8 $\frac{1}{4}$ × 11 $\frac{1}{2}$ in), but quarto (8 × 10 in) or the US standard size (8 $\frac{1}{2}$ × 11 in) will also be accepted. Because of postage costs, manuscripts not accepted for publication are not normally returned to the authors unless their return is specifically requested.

9 The entire material of any article, including footnotes, quotations, appendices, etc., should be double spaced, with left-hand margins of at least 1 $\frac{1}{2}$ in. The preferred treatment of footnotes is that they should be numbered consecutively in the text and typed double spaced all together at the end, beginning on a fresh page.

10 Anyone who is preparing a manuscript for submission to the Journal is urged to follow the Journal's style sheet, which covers a number of detailed points concerning footnotes, punctuation, spelling, etc. Copies of the style sheet can be obtained from the Editors. Footnote references should always contain, in the case of books, the name of the author as it appears on the title page, the full title including any subtitle, the place of publication, the name of the publisher and the date of publication, and, in the case of articles, the name of the author, the full title, the name of the journal, the volume number, the year and the page reference (number of first and last page).

11 First proofs may be read and corrected by contributors provided that they can give the Editors an address through which they can be reached without delay and can guarantee to return the corrected proofs to the Editor, by air mail where appropriate, within ten days of receiving them. The master proof will always be sent directly to the Editors by the printer; contributors will receive duplicates.
