Authors are kindly requested to adhere to the following rules :

1° Bibliographical references :

- a) indicate in the text the name of the author followed by the year of publication in brackets [for example : Smith (1969)];
- b) all references should be collected at the end of the paper. Underline the name of the book or of the review (not abbreviated).

For example :

Brown, J.R. (1970), Economic Theory, Un. Press, Louvain.

Smith, L.P. (1969), The Effects of Inflation on the Distribution of Income, American Economic Journal, Vol. 51, n° 1.

2° Important formulas should be numbered consecutively. These numbers should be written in brackets at the right-hand side of the page.

3° Foot-notes should be referred to by numerical superscripts and collected on a separate sheet.
