

Nationalities Papers is the place to turn for cutting edge multidisciplinary work on nationalism, migration, diasporas, and ethnic conflict. The journal's geographical emphasis is on Central, Eastern, and Southeastern Europe, Russia, Ukraine, the Caucasus, and Eurasia. Our mission is to feature both theoretical and empirical work, and review articles. We publish high-quality peer-reviewed articles from historians, political scientists, sociologists, anthropologists, as well as scholars from other fields.

On the Cover. Photo by Kristiina Silvan: “Young participants of the ‘Immortal Regiment’ procession in Moscow, Russia. I conducted participant observation at the parade as a part of my PhD project, which studies government-affiliated youth activism in Russia and Belarus. During the four-hour walk I was struck by the atmosphere of sincerity in the crowd, which is what this photo tries to capture. People came with their own signs, in their own World War II inspired outfits, and chanted in high spirits as they marched towards Red Square. Most importantly, there were a lot of young participants, which suggests that some youth are taking the initiative to perform their patriotic stances, precisely as desired by the government. Photo taken on Tverskaya Street on 9 May, 2018.”
