

THE CLASSICAL ASSOCIATION

THE objects of the Classical Association are to promote the development and maintain the well-being of classical studies, and in particular (a) to impress upon public opinion the claim of such studies to an eminent place in the national scheme of education; (b) to improve the practice of classical teaching; (c) to encourage investigation and call attention to new discoveries; (d) to create opportunities for intercourse among lovers of classical learning.

Membership of the Association is open to men and women alike. The annual subscription is 5s. (life composition, £3 15s.), and there is an entrance fee of 5s. (not charged to Libraries). Members receive a copy of the annual Proceedings of the Association and, on payment of 2s. 6d., of The Year's Work in Classical Studies (both post free). They may also obtain the Classical Review and Classical Quarterly at reduced prices, provided that the subscriptions be paid before January 31st in each year. Subscriptions sent in later than that date must be at the rates offered to the general public.

Inquiries and applications for membership should be addressed to the Hon. Treasurer, Prof. M. T. Smiley, University College, London; or to either of the Hon. Secretaries, Dr. E. Norman Gardiner, 186, Woodstock Road, Oxford, and Mr. C. T. Seltman, Queens' College, Cambridge; or to the Hon. Secretary of any of the district Branches—viz., Mr. S. K. Johnson, The University, Manchester; Dr. G. A. Auden, Education Office, Margaret Street, Birmingham; Mr. R. B. Onians, The University, Liverpool; Professor Granger, University College, Nottingham; Mr. R. W. Jackson, 16, Freemantle Square, Cotham, Bristol; Mr. Basil Anderton, The Public Library, New Bridge Street, Newcastle-upon-Tyne; Miss E. J. Vaughan, Westfield College, Hampstead; Mr. W. E. Nash-Williams, University College, Cardiff; Mr. E. E. Bibby, The University, Leeds; Miss E. L. Topham, Firth Park Secondary School, Sheffield; Mr. E. D. T. Selections from Virgil's Georgics

Edited by JOHN MASSON, M.A., L.L.D. Price 4s.

'Here is an excellent little volume . . . prefaced by an Introduction, which ought to make every boy possessed of the slightest literary feeling a life-long lover of Virgil.'—Journal of Education.

'Dr. Masson is thoroughly up to date.'—Times Educational Supplement.

'An excellent piece of work, far superior in every way to the usual run of annotated texts. The Introduction is admirable, and scholars as well as students will find much to interest them in the course of the fifty odd pages. The same thing may be said of the notes.'—Classical Review.

'I read your Introduction to your Selections from Virgil's Georgics with the greatest interest. It is just such a book as I should like to be able to ask my English Honours Students to read and study. I am always being made to feel the need of some more extended and literary study of Classical Literature than most of them bring with them from school. But time is limited and there must be some selection. I believe that both teachers and publishers will have to consider the necessity for focussing classical reading on our own Literature—I mean selecting what is read in school with a view to what is most instructive and delightful for the student of English writers. Among classical authors read from this point of view Virgil will probably hold the chief place, and of his works the Georgics are as important and interesting as the Aeneid, while selection in their case is more necessary.'—PROFESSOR GRIERSON.
