

Journal of Ecumenical Studies

"MOST IMPORTANT" IN THE WORLD!

Say the directors of the world's ecumenical centers and institutes, according to the 1971 survey of the Centro Pro Unione in Rome.

CONTENTS:

- 1) Pioneering articles on all aspects of inter-religious dialogue: Christian, Jewish, Muslim, etc.
- 2) Editorials by the most outstanding ecumenical editorial board in the world
- 3) Book reviews of all books of ecumenical interest
- 4) Abstracts of articles from 300 periodicals around the world
- 5) Ecumenical events reported in depth from around the world
- 6) Discussion and study guide for the articles in each issue

Remember:
ECUMENISM MEANS RENEWAL!
RENEWAL MEANS ECUMENISM!

SUBSCRIPTION:

$10.00 per year
($11.00 overseas)
Students-$5.00 per year
($5.50 overseas)

JOURNAL OF ECUMENICAL STUDIES

Temple University
Philadelphia,
Pennsylvania 19122

Religious Studies Review

A Quarterly Review of Publications in the Field of Religion and Related Disciplines
Published by the Council on the Study of Religion

IN THE JULY ISSUE

E. P. Sanders, Paul and Palestinian Judaism, reviewed by Nils Dahl and Samuel Sandmel / Charlotte Klein, Anti-Judaism in Christian Theology, reviewed by George Nickelsburg / Henry Warner Bowden, Dictionary of American Religious Biography, reviewed by Stuart Henry / Annemarie Schimmel, Mystical Dimensions of Islam, J. Spencer Trimmingham, The Sufi Orders in Islam, and Martin Lings, What Is Sufism?, reviewed by Bruce Lawrence / James Childress reviews recent ethics works on death and dying, and John Whittaker writes on "Wittgenstein and Religion: Some Later Views of his Later Work" / Haim Gordon offers a bibliography on Martin Buber / Critical notes on over 150 titles / Dissertations recently completed and in progress

NOTES ON RECENT PUBLICATIONS / RECENT DISSERTATIONS IN RELIGION

IN COMING ISSUES:

Douglas Knight (ed.), Tradition and Theology in the Old Testament, reviewed by Bernhard Anderson / James W. McClendon and James M. Smith, Understanding Religious Convictions, and D. Z. Phillips, Religion without Explanation, reviewed by Norbert Schedler / Georg Picht and Enno Rudolph, Theologie—Was ist das?, reviewed by Robert Scharlemann / Langdon Gilkey, Reaping the Whirlwind, reviewed by Francis Schüssler Fiorenza and Edward Farley / Lives of Jesus, reviewed by David Dungan and James Duke / a retrospective review of Peter Berger, by Van Harvey and Maria Augusta Neal

Editors

Charles J. Adams, McGill University / H. Byron Earhart, Western Michigan University / Mary Gerhart, Hobart & William Smith Colleges / Walter Harrelson, Vanderbilt University / Samuel S. Hill, Jr., University of Florida / W. Lee Humphreys, University of Tennessee, Knoxville / John P. Reeder, Jr., Brown University / David Tracy, University of Chicago, Chairman / Harold Remus, Wilfrid Laurier University, Managing Editor

Annual Subscription Rates

Members of societies belonging to the
CSR $8.00
Others (including institutions) $15.00

Council on the Study of Religion
Wilfrid Laurier University
Waterloo, Ontario, Canada
N2L 3C5

Make checks payable to Council on the Study of Religion.
