Membership

The Institute welcomes as members any who are interested in philosophy. There are centres of the Institute at the University of Newcastle upon Tyne and the University College of North Wales. In these centres, and at the London headquarters, an annual programme of lectures is arranged. Members receive copies of Philosophy but not the volumes in the Royal Institute of Philosophy Lecture series.

The annual subscription is £13.50, $30.00 in the USA and Canada. For full-time students and those registered as unemployed the subscription is £7.00 or $15.00. Membership is effective from 1 April of any year. Application should be made to THE SECRETARY, ROYAL INSTITUTE OF PHILOSOPHY, 14 GORDON SQUARE, LONDON, WC1H 0AG. Members are reminded that subscriptions fall due on 1 April (receipts to renewing members will be issued only on request).

Philosophy

The editorial policy of the journal pursues the aims of the Institute: to promote the study of philosophy in all its branches: logic, metaphysics, epistemology, ethics, aesthetics, social and political philosophy and the philosophies of religion, science, history, language, mind and education. The Institute is not committed to any school or method and its membership is not restricted to those with special qualifications in philosophy. Contributors are expected to avoid all needless technicality.
