EDITORIAL ANNOUNCEMENTS

The LATIN AMERICAN RESEARCH REVIEW was moved to the University of North Carolina at Chapel Hill effective September 1, 1974. The present issue is the last to be produced at The University of Texas at Austin. Beginning with Volume X, Number 1, LARR will be the responsibility of the new editors and staff. Joining me in the enterprise will be Joseph S. Tulchin, Associate Editor, and Leah Florence, Managing Editor. Composition of the new Editorial Board, the full staff, and a statement of editorial policy will appear in the next issue.

We are deeply appreciative of the important and cordial cooperation of the outgoing editors and staff in the complicated process of transferring the journal and its offices. During LARR's five years at Chapel Hill, we will be dedicated to maintaining and building upon the accomplishments of the past decade. In the effort to maximize communication and an exchange of views with the readership, an Open Forum will be held at the LASA convention on Thursday, November 14th. We will also be attending many of the annual meetings of the several regional associations. Mailed communications should be sent to LARR, Hamilton Hall, University of North Carolina, Chapel Hill, NC 27514.
