TO THOSE WISHING TO SUBMIT MANUSCRIPTS

Manuscripts for consideration should be submitted in four double-spaced typed copies. (If manuscripts are computer generated, they should be letter quality or near letter quality. Continuous form sheets must be separated.) Notes and block quotations should be double-spaced; notes should be placed at the end of the manuscript and not at the bottoms of pages. Figures, charts, photographs, and other illustrative materials must be available in camera-ready form, although camera-ready copy does not have to be sent with the initial submission.

Manuscripts are sent to outside readers in anonymous form and should be prepared accordingly. Library of Congress transliteration and the Chicago Manual of Style are to be followed. In general, articles should not exceed twenty-five typed pages 8½" and 11" in dimension—including endnotes. Manuscripts will not be returned unless postage is included; please do not send checks.

The policy of the Slavic Review is not to consider materials that have been published or that are being considered for publication elsewhere.

Publication of articles in the Slavic Review is ordinarily limited to those submitted by members of AAASS. Nonmembers wishing to submit manuscripts are asked to request a membership application; please see the inside front cover for information on membership.

MARQUIS DE CUSTINE wrote prophetically in the mid-19th century that when the sun of openness rose above Russia it would throw light on such abominations and such awful outrages that the whole world would shudder.

There are no abominations, no awful outrages in the film.
This is just a story of some people who practiced the art of surviving without conforming or betraying their inner "self".

This is a story about the exhilarating and frightening experience of REJOICING IN THE DARK.
