THE HAJJ

The Muslim Pilgrimage to Mecca and the Holy Places

F. E. Peters

Whatever its outcome, the road to Mecca has long been an exhilarating human adventure. By collecting the first-hand accounts of travelers and shaping their experiences into a richly detailed narrative, F. E. Peters here provides an unparalleled literary history of the central ritual of Islam from its remote pre-Islamic origins to the end of the Hashimite Kingdom of the Hijaz in 1926.

Peters has enhanced his presentation with an abundance of rare nineteenth-century photographs of pilgrims and the Islamic Holy Places from the unique collection of the Harvard Semitic Museum, annotated by the curator, Dr. Carney Gavin.

"F.E. Peters has created an extraordinarily rich and detailed mosaic. I cannot imagine that we will ever have a more vivid portrait of Mecca. His anthology is unique and irreplaceable."—Stephen Humphreys, University of California, Santa Barbara

UNDER CRESCENT AND CROSS

The Jews in the Middle Ages

Mark R. Cohen

Exploring the myths of an "interfaith utopia," in which medieval Muslims and Jews peacefully cohabited in Arab lands, Mark Cohen offers the first in-depth explanation of why medieval Islamic-Jewish relations, though not utopic, were less confrontational and violent than those between Christians and Jews in the West.

Under Crescent and Cross presents a systematic comparison of the legal, economic, and social situations of Jews in medieval Islam and Christendom. Written for a broad audience, it draws on salient primary sources, which let the voices of medieval Islam, Christendom, and the Jews speak for themselves.

"... Well-conceived, meticulously crafted, and lucidly written, this book is an exciting project whose time has come."—Ross Brann, Cornell University

"... intellectually accessible and highly readable."—Steven Wasserstrom, Reed College

THE SHI'IS OF IRAQ

Yitzhak Nakash

Iraqi Shi'is, the country's majority group, are nevertheless politically disinherited, as was vividly demonstrated in the aftermath of the Gulf War. Here Yitzhak Nakash provides a rich historical background for understanding their place in today's Sunni-dominated Iraq. The first comprehensive work on the Shi'is of Iraq, this book shows that the growth of Iraqi Shi'ism was closely related to socioeconomic and political developments in the nineteenth century.

"The Shi'is of Iraq is a first-rate work of scholarship, without a doubt the most authoritative account we have of this topic."

THE ORIGINS OF THE COLD WAR IN THE NEAR EAST

Great Power Conflict and Diplomacy in Iran,
Turkey, and Greece

Bruce R. Kuniholm

Drawing on a wide variety of secondary sources, government documents, private papers, unpublished memoirs, and extensive interviews with key figures, Bruce Kuniholm takes a regional perspective to focus on postwar diplomacy in Iran, Turkey, and Greece and efforts in these countries to maintain their independence from the Great Powers.

"Kuniholm's work should be commended for its careful analysis of British, American, and Soviet intervention into the politics of Iran, Turkey and Greece."
