

FREEDOM'S CHILDREN

The 1938 Labor Rebellion and the Birth of Modern Jamaica

Colin A. Palmer

“Despite the richness and complexity of the story, Palmer manages to tell it in a beautiful, engaging, and flowing narrative style from beginning to end. It is an outstanding achievement, a heroic labor of love, and a fitting monument to the struggles of the Jamaican people.”

— Winston James,
University of California, Irvine
432 pages $39.95 paper

THE LATINO GENERATION

Voices of the New America

Mario T. García

“This book will become a major contribution and enhance our understanding of the experiences of this Latino Generation of the early twenty-first century.”

— Ernesto Chavez,
University of Texas at El Paso
288 pages $34.95 cloth

THE AGE OF YOUTH IN ARGENTINA

Culture, Politics, and Sexuality from Perón to Videla

Valeria Manzano

“Manzano proves that young people became the most active agents for economic, social, and political change in Argentina in the sixties and seventies until the process was cut short by the brutal military dictatorship of 1976. Manzano's book sheds light on one of the most savagely repressed youth movements of the 1970s.”

— Oscar Chamosa, University of Georgia
360 pages $34.95 paper

THE REVOLUTION IS FOR THE CHILDREN

The Politics of Childhood in Havana and Miami, 1959-1962

Anita Casavantes Bradford

“[The] perspective on children as nation-makers and nation-breakers—the politics of childhood—really adds a new and worthwhile dimension to our discussion of social processes that were as dramatic and profound as the creation of the Two Cubas—the revolutionary nation and the exile.”

— Silvia Pedraza, University of Michigan
280 pages $32.95 paper

ZERO HUNGER

Political Culture and Antipoverty Policy in Northeast Brazil

Aaron Ansell

“Ansell explores how democracy and patronage are non-hierarchically nested, or deeply entwined, rather than anti-theoretical—this is one of the book's most important theoretical discussions, and it is also a key point regarding Brazil today.”

— John Collins, Queens College & the Graduate Center, City University of New York
264 pages $32.95 paper

JOURNALS

Revista de Historia Económica

Journal of Iberian and Latin American Economic History

Published for Instituto Figuerola de Historia y Ciencias Sociales, Universidad Carlos III de Madrid

Chief Editor

Blanca Sánchez Alonso, Universidad CEU-San Pablo, Madrid, Spain

Co-editors

Sandra Kuntz Ficker, El Colegio de México, Mexico

William Summerhill, UCLA, USA

Revista de Historia Económica - Journal of Iberian and Latin American Economic History (RHE-JILAEH) welcomes contributions with comparative approaches, especially those that include a wide geographical or global coverage. The journal will promote the presentation of new topics, ideas and perspectives from the different social sciences, notably new historical and economic methods. RHE-JILAEH publishes original research papers on economic history, economic thought and all those areas of economics concerned with long-term analysis. The geographical area addressed in these papers should preferably cover Spanish and Portuguese speaking countries and wider areas including any of these countries.

RHE-JILAEH is pleased to announce that it has been ranked 14th out of 69 journals in the history category, with an impact factor of 0.545 in the latest (2012) Thomson-Reuters Journal Citation Report®. We are also indexed in the History of Social Science category, as well as in History and Economics.

NOTES FOR CONTRIBUTORS

Editorial Policy

The Journal of Latin American Studies is published four times a year, in February, May, August and November. Its editorial offices are located at the Institute of Latin American Studies, University of London. The editorial board comprises area studies specialists based in the United Kingdom from all the principal social science disciplines, including history.

The Journal aims to publish recent research in the field of Latin American studies in economics, geography, politics, international relations, sociology, social anthropology and history. Articles on literature and the arts are not normally included, but the editors are pleased to consider contributions in the field of intellectual and cultural history. Articles with an interdisciplinary approach are particularly welcome.

Manuscript Submission (visit <http://mc.manuscriptcentral.com/jlas>)

Articles submitted to the Journal should be original contributions. They should not be under consideration by another journal, nor have been published or be awaiting publication elsewhere. Translations of articles that have already been published will not be accepted. If an author is publishing a closely related article elsewhere, this fact should be stated in a cover note to the editors. Authors of articles published in the Journal assign copyright to Cambridge University Press (with certain rights reserved) and will receive a copyright assignment form for signature on acceptance of their paper.

Articles should be between 10,000 and 12,000 words, including footnotes, tables etc. The Journal is published in English, but articles may also be submitted in Spanish or Portuguese for peer review; if accepted for publication, the responsibility for translating articles rests with the author.

For full instructions on submissions and journal style, visit www.journals.cambridge.org/las/ifc.

The Journal publishes commissioned book reviews in each issue. Not all books received can be reviewed, and editorial policy gives preference to reviews of books regarded as being of major importance for the disciplines covered by the Journal. Unsolicited reviews cannot be considered.

Contributors are responsible for obtaining permission to reproduce any material for which they do not own copyright, to be used in both print and electronic media, and for ensuring that the appropriate acknowledgements are included in their manuscript.

All editorial correspondence should be addressed to The Editors, Journal of Latin American Studies, Institute of Latin American Studies, University of London, Senate House, Malet Street, London WC1E 7HU, UK, or sent to jl@sas.ac.uk.

Proofs

Proofs of accepted articles will be sent to authors as pdf files for checking and correction of typesetting errors. Typographical or factual errors only may be changed at proof stage. The publisher reserves the right to charge authors for correction of non-typographical errors.

Offprints

Contributors will receive a pdf file of their article.

This issue has been printed on FSC-certified paper and cover board. FSC is an independent, non-governmental, not-for-profit organisation established to promote the responsible management of the world's forests. Please see www.fsc.org for information.
