Publications in Mediaeval Studies

THE UNIVERSITY OF NOTRE DAME

A series of studies in the several branches of mediaeval learning, but especially in the theology and philosophy of the twelfth and thirteenth centuries. It is to include critical studies of mediaeval writers and their works, critical editions of texts, doctrinal, historical and literary studies.

A volume of these studies will appear at least annually. The volumes will be bound in blue cloth covers with gold stampings and in brown paper covers. To date four volumes have appeared:

The Works of Peter of Poitiers, Master in Theology and Chancellor of Paris (1193-1205).

Commentarius Cantabrigiensis in epistolas Pauli e schola Petri Abaelardi: 1. In epistolam ad Romanos.

Commentarius Cantabrigiensis in epistolas Pauli e schola Petri Abaelardi: 2. In epistolam ad Corinthios I^{am} et II^{am}, ad Galatas et ad Ephesios.

Petri Pictaviensis allegoriae super tabernaculum Moysi.

A discount of 10% is offered to subscribers to the series and to libraries and learned societies. Exchanges with reviews and learned publications are welcome.
