MEMBER OF THE MONTH!

The American Political Science Association Member of the Month program recognizes and highlights member achievements and professional milestones.

It is a celebration and appreciation of the outstanding contributions our members make to the community through their scholarship and teaching, championship of the profession, and support of APSA and its programs.

The APSA Member of the Month program recognizes one member each month. Nominations for the award (including self-nominations) may be submitted by members and nonmembers of APSA using the form available here: www.apsanet.org/motm

Eligibility Requirements:

1. Individuals must be a current member of APSA (all member types are eligible).
2. Individuals must have been a member of APSA at least one year.
3. Individuals may only be eligible to receive recognition once per calendar year.

Completed nomination forms should be submitted online to membership@apsanet.org or in hard copy to: APSA Membership, 1527 New Hampshire Avenue, NW, Washington, DC 20036. Forms submitted after the 15th of each month will be considered for the following month.

APSA Congressional Fellowship for Political Scientists

Apply This Fall for the 2017–2018 Fellowship Year

Apply This Fall!

Since 1953, the APSA Congressional Fellowship Program has brought more than 2,200 scholars and professionals to Washington, DC, to gain a hands-on understanding of Congress and the legislative process. Fellows begin their fellowship year with a comprehensive four-week orientation with leading congressional experts and policy leaders. Fellows then serve full-time placements of their choosing in the House of Representatives or Senate.

The fellowship year also includes:

- Winter and spring seminar series on Congress
- A trip to the district or state of a Member of Congress
- Optional study visits to Annapolis, Maryland, and Ottawa, Canada

QUALIFICATIONS: Applications are welcome from political scientists who have completed a PhD in the last 15 years or will have defended a dissertation in political science by November 2017. Candidates must be US citizens or permanent residents. The program is open to scholars in all subfields of political science who can show a scholarly interest in Congress and the legislative process.

FELLOWSHIP YEAR: Orientation begins in November 2017. Office assignments run until August 15, 2018. Two optional programs precede the main fellowship year. Candidates may apply to take a course on Congress and Foreign Policy taught in September and October 2017, as well as apply to spend up to two months as a Visiting Scholar at the APSA Centennial Center, supported by the William A. Steiger Fund for Legislative Studies, also immediately before the main fellowship year.

STIPEND: $50,000 for the 9.5-month fellowship period, plus a travel allowance.

SELECTION: Preference is given to those who have not had extensive Capitol Hill experience.

APPLICATION PROCEDURE: The application period opens in September 2016, and applications are due December 1, 2016.

Applications must be submitted online and include:

- a detailed CV
- a 500-word personal statement explaining how the fellowship relates to professional goals
- the names and contact information for three professional references who have agreed to write letters of recommendation
- a writing sample

Applications available online this fall.

APSA Membership Opens Doors

Take Advantage of the Value of APSA Membership

Join APSA!

Offering Online Scholarship

Scholarship is central to APSA membership. Current and recent back issues of all three APSA journals are available online to members through Cambridge Journals Online. Members can also gain access to the full historical collection through JSTOR subscriptions.

Creating Networks and Connecting Scholars

APSA strives to provide valuable opportunities for members to network with colleagues, share ideas, and form relationships to drive their careers. Organized Sections provide an outlet for specialized scholarship and networking through APSA Connect. APSA Connect is APSA's connected community that creates a secure private community platform that empowers members to create, manage, and engage online communities. It is designed to improve engagement, promote information sharing, increase collaboration, and provide a forum for innovation.

Providing Career and Employment Resources

APSA eJobs is the most comprehensive online resource of political science employment opportunities and job candidates. It is fully searchable and updated daily with new job listings and candidate resumes. The eJobs placement service at the Annual Meeting brings employers and candidates together in person to facilitate the hiring process.

Supporting Political Science Research

The Centennial Center for Political Science & Public Affairs, located at APSA's headquarters building, provides office space for scholars and students conducting field work in Washington, D.C. Through the Center, APSA also offers a number of research grant opportunities for scholars working in various subfields.

As the the oldest,
largest, and most comprehensive political science society in the world, APSA supports more than 12,000
members in 100 countries and advances political science in many different ways.
