JOURNAL OF COMMON MARKET STUDIES

Edited by Peter Robson

The Journal of Common Market Studies, now in its twenty-fifth volume, is devoted to the analysis of international integration and the experience of regional groupings throughout the world. Its predominant concern is with the European Community and its relations with the rest of the world, but it also deals with integration in COMECON countries, and with the experience of Third World groupings, publishing studies in the political economy of integration as well as more specialized contributions in politics, economics and public administration.

Articles in Volume 25, 1987 include:

The trade effects of the EC

ALAN WINTERS

Is there a future for ASEAN?

JOHN WANG

European budgetary affairs in 1985

W. NICOLL

MANAGING THE FROZEN SOUTH

The Creation and Evolution of the Antarctic Treaty System

M. J. PETERSON

The question of how to govern Antarctica, a massive body, has confronted the international powers with daunting issues. In this fascinating work, Peterson examines these issues and the kind of treaty system which has emerged over the last several decades.

CONTROLLING CORRUPTION

ROBERT KLITGAARD

"Klitgaard's incisive approach to the pervasive phenomenon of corruption in the developing world is both pragmatic and productive."

—Fernando Eleta, former Secretary of State, Republic of Panama

"At last, a balanced book on corruption. Klitgaard avoids being patronizing, and he combines insightful analysis of corruption with useful proposals for action to reduce its prevalance and its most damaging consequences."

—Bruce F. Johnston,
Stanford University

TOWARD A POLITICAL ECONOMY OF DEVELOPMENT

A Rational Choice
Perspective

Edited by ROBERT H. BATES

"This fine reader ought to attract the attention of political scientists and sociologists—and economists—concerned with development in the Third World, rational choice theories, and the role of the state in affecting domestic and international markets."

INTERNATIONAL INCIDENTS

The Law That Counts
in World Politics

Edited by
W. Michael Reisman
and Andrew R. Willard

This provocative book shows that many international standards of acceptable conduct derive far less from adjudications, statutes, or treaties and far more from what is found to be acceptable in the conflicts that we today call international incidents.

The contributors demonstrate how law that counts has been developed, modified, and terminated in a variety of dramatic international incidents: the downing of Korean Air Lines Flight 007, the Harrods bombing, the Argentine invasion of the Falklands, the incursions of foreign submarines into Swedish waters, and others.

NAVAL STRATEGY AND NATIONAL SECURITY

An International Security Reader

Edited by Steven E. Miller and
Stephen Van Evera

These essays from the journal International Security cover aspects of past and present naval technologies and explore current disputes over American naval doctrine. Four of the contributions—those by Linton Brooks, John Mearsheimer, Barry Posen, and Joshua Epstein—describe the case for and against the Reagan administration's controversial Maritime Strategy, which has formed the basis for the administration's buildup to a six-hundred-ship navy. Other contributors describe Soviet naval doctrine, assess the risk of nuclear war at sea, and outline the evolution of major naval technologies and doctrines.

Cloth: $40.00 ISBN 0-691-07775-4

Now in paperback with a new epilogue by the author

CONDEMNED TO REPETITION

The United States and Nicaragua

Robert A. Pastor

Here is an insider's account of U.S. policy making toward Nicaragua, written by a major participant.

Robert Pastor was Director of Latin American Affairs on the National Security Council from 1977 to 1981, a crucial period in U.S.-Nicaragua relations. He presents a wealth of original material from his own experience, classified government documents, and interviews with nearly 100 leaders from the United States, Nicaragua, and throughout Latin America.

What emerges is a picture of the United States and an entire region haunted by the spectre of Cuba and yet "condemned to repetition."

"A significant and revealing work on an issue of continuing great strategic importance to the United States."

—Zbigniew Brzezinski, Center for Strategic & International Studies
