

Wynema

A Child of the Forest

S. ALICE CALLAHAN

Edited with an introduction
by A. LaVonne Brown Ruoff

This is the first novel known to have been written by a woman of American Indian descent and is set against the sweeping and often tragic cultural changes that affected southeastern native peoples during the late nineteenth century. It tells the story of a lifelong friendship between two women from vastly different backgrounds—a Muscogee Indian and a Methodist teacher from a genteel Southern family.

Life, Letters and Speeches

GEORGE COPWAY
(KAHGEGAGAHBOWH)

Edited by A. LaVonne Brown
Ruoff and Donald B. Smith

George Copway (1818–69), a Canadian Ojibwe writer and lecturer, rose to prominence in American literary, political, and social circles during the mid–nineteenth century. His colorful, kaleidoscopic life took him from the tiny Ojibwe village of his youth to the halls of state legislatures throughout the eastern United States and eventually overseas. Copway converted to Methodism as a teenager and traveled throughout the Midwest as a missionary. He became a forceful and energetic spokesman for temperance and the rights and sovereignty of Indians, lecturing to large crowds in the United States and Europe.
