

ANNOUNCEMENT

CALL FOR PAPERS AND PARTICIPANTS

1982 ANNUAL MEETINGS OF THE WESTERN FINANCE ASSOCIATION

June 17-19, 1982

Portland, Oregon

Members and friends of the Western Finance Association are invited to submit papers to be considered for presentation at the 1982 Annual Meetings. Papers on any topic related to financial economics will be considered.

Submission of Papers

Send four copies of the paper to the program chairman no later than November 15, 1981. While we prefer a completed paper, in its absence we will consider a lengthy and detailed abstract (i.e., at least five pages). After the papers are reviewed, the authors will be notified in January, 1982, of the program committee's decision. Please attach a separate sheet indicating the author's name(s), affiliation(s), the title of the paper, and whether you would be willing to serve as a discussant or as a session chairman.

All completed papers received will be considered for publication in the proceedings issue of the Journal of Financial and Quantitative Analysis.

Other Participants

Individuals willing to serve as session chairmen or as discussants should write directly to the program chairman indicating their fields of interest.

Trefftzs' Award

This announcement is also a call for student papers to be considered for the Annual Trefftzs' Award. These papers should also be sent to the program chairman with a cover letter indicating that they are student papers and should be considered for the Trefftzs' Award.

All papers and communications pertaining to participation in the program should be sent by November 15, 1981, to:

Dean Edward A. Dyl, Program Chairman
College of Commerce and Industry
University Station Box 3275
University of Wyoming
