Rising prevalence of depression and widening sociodemographic disparities in depressive symptoms among Filipino youth: findings from two large nationwide cross-sectional surveys – CORRIGENDUM

DOI: <https://doi.org/10.1017/gmh.2025.39> Published online by Cambridge University Press: 30 May 2025.

Upon publication of Tuazon AC and Afable SD (2025), an error was found in the second sentence of the abstract, which incorrectly reads:

“This study analyzed nationally representative survey data from 2013 ( $n = 10,949$ ) and 2021 ( $n = 19,178$ ) ....”

The correct sentence should be:

“This study analyzed nationally representative survey data from 2013 ( $n = 19,178$ ) and 2021 ( $n = 10,949$ ) ....”

The article has been updated to reflect the correct information.
