English Profile Journal

Editors

Michael McCarthy, University of Nottingham, UK

John Hawkins, University of Cambridge, UK

University of California, Davis, USA/University of California, Davis, USA

English Profile Journal publishes cutting-edge research that grows out of the English Profile programme. Setting standards for English language learners, the English Profile programme is a collaborative research programme registered with the Council of Europe that aims to provide a detailed set of Reference Level Descriptions linked to the Common European Framework of Reference (CEFR) for English. Partners in the English Profile programme are the University of Cambridge, the University of Bedfordshire, Cambridge University Press, Cambridge ESOL, the British Council, and English UK.

Kantian Review

Editors

Howard Williams, Aberystwyth University, UK

Graham Bird, University of Manchester, UK

Richard Aquila, University of Tennessee, USA

Kantian Review publishes articles and reviews selected for their quality and relevance to current philosophical debate in relation to Kant's work. In recent times Kant's philosophy has influenced contemporary philosophers over a wide range of issues from epistemology, metaphysics and philosophy of science to moral and political philosophy, philosophy of religion, aesthetics and teleology. Kantian Review invites contributions to these debates along with original accounts of Kant's texts, and of the development of his thought in its historical background.

Think

Philosophy for everyone

Published for the Royal Institute of Philosophy

Editor

Stephen Law, Heythrop College, University of London, UK

Think has been created to forge a direct link between contemporary philosophy and the widest possible readership. The central aim of the journal is to provide to a very wide audience – encompassing undergraduates, 'A' level students, students in further education and the general public – highly accessible and engaging writing by philosophers pre-eminent in their fields. Think also aims to counter the popular impression that philosophy is pointless and wholly detached from everyday life. Its contributors sometimes expose some of the bad philosophy which currently passes as accepted wisdom in certain circles (e.g. religious, scientific, anthropological, etc). Perhaps most importantly, Think gives contemporary philosophers the chance to help nurture and encourage philosophers of the next generation.

Editorial Policy of Philosophy

The editorial policy of the journal pursues the aims of the Institute: to promote the study of philosophy in all its branches: logic, metaphysics, epistemology, ethics, aesthetics, social and political philosophy and the philosophies of religion, science, history, language, mind and education. The Institute is not committed to any school or method and its membership is not restricted to those with special qualifications in philosophy. Contributors are expected to avoid all needless technicality.

Instructions for Contributors

Prospective authors should email their contributions as .doc files (not pdfs) to assistant@royalinstitutephilosophy.org. Contributions should on no account be longer than 10,000 words. Generally speaking far shorter is much to be preferred.

Authors should observe the conventions of the journal. The Editor will alter manuscripts wherever necessary to make them conform to journal style.

Quotation marks

Single quotation marks should be used except where there is a quotation within another.

E.g. 'He cried out "one should only use double quotation marks within single quotation marks", and stormed off.'

Unless the punctuation is an integral part of the quotation, it should be outside the quotation marks.

E.g. She looked up and asked 'Like this?'

He nodded and replied 'yes, that's exactly right'.

Titles of articles should be in single quotation marks. Scare quotes should be in single quotation marks.

Italics

The titles of books and journals should be in italics.

Foreign words and phrases should be in italics.

E.g. 'reductio ad absurdum' and 'a priori'.

Hyphens, en-rules, em-rules

En-rules should be used for parentheses, rather than em-rules.

E.g. 'en-rules are – according to Hart's rules – the most appropriate for London journals.'

NOT

'en-rules are—according to Hart's rules—the most appropriate for London journals.'

En-rules should be used to indicate ranges, rather than hyphens.

E.g. '136–234'

NOT

135-234

Footnotes

Notes and references will be printed as footnotes. Citations should also be given as footnotes and should appear as follows:

1. John Hyman, 'Pains and Places', Philosophy 78 (2003), 5–24
2. R. B. Loudon, Morality and Moral Theory (New York and Oxford: Oxford University Press, 1992).
3. Op. cit. note 1, 101–112.

NOTE – do not include 'pp.' or 'p.' to indicate pages.

Structure

Sub-sections should be headed with Arabic rather than Roman numerals.

Abstracts should appear at the start of articles, and should be between 100 and 200 words in length.

At the end of articles, the author's biographical note will be inserted. This will include the author's name, email (unless otherwise stipulated by the author), and a couple of sentences detailing research interests and recent publications.

SEBASTIEN WINSTANLEY (swinstanley@bies.ac.uk) is Professor of Philosophy at the British Institute of Ephemeral Studies. His recent publications include The Disappearance of Nothingness (Arcana Press, 2011) and Death, My Friend (Moribunda, 2013).

Only corrections of typesetter's errors can be allowed in proofs. Authors are therefore asked to send any alterations or additions to Professor O'Hear as soon as possible after receiving his letter of acceptance.

Authors of articles, discussion papers and review articles will receive a pdf offprint free of charge. Print offprints may be purchased from the publisher if ordered at proof stage. Authors will also receive a copy of the issue in which their article appears.

Books for review should be sent to the Editor at the Institute and not to Cambridge University Press. Publishers are asked to note that non-philosophical works are not reviewed in Philosophy.

Contributors of accepted articles will be asked to assign their copyright (on certain conditions) to the Royal Institute of Philosophy so that their interest may be safeguarded.

Authors are responsible for obtaining permission to reproduce any material in which they do not own copyright, to be used in both print and electronic media, and for ensuring that the appropriate acknowledgements are included in their manuscript.

Authors' corrected proofs should be sent via email to assistant@royalinstitutephilosophy.org.
