

THE CLASSICAL ASSOCIATION

THE objects of the Classical Association are to promote the development and maintain the well-being of classical studies, and in particular (a) to impress upon public opinion the claim of such studies to an eminent place in the national scheme of education; (b) to improve the practice of classical teaching; (c) to encourage investigation and call attention to new discoveries; (d) to create opportunities for intercourse among lovers of classical learning.

Membership of the Association is open to men and women alike. The annual subscription is 5s. (life composition, £3 15s.), and there is an entrance fee of 5s. (not charged to Libraries). Members receive a copy of the annual Proceedings of the Association and, on payment of 2s. 6d., of The Year's Work in Classical Studies (both post free). They may also obtain the Classical Review and Classical Quarterly at reduced prices, provided that the subscriptions be paid before January 31st in each year. TRANSLATION AND TRANSLATIONS THEORY AND PRACTICE

By J. P. POSTGATE, Litt.D., F.B.A., Fellow and sometime Senior Lecturer of Trinity College, Cambridge; Emeritus Professor of Latin in the University of Liverpool.

Professor Postgate's new book contains a critical examination of current views on the theory and practice of translation from foreign languages. The second part of the volume consists of carefully selected illustrative renderings by the author, chiefly in verse, of passages from Latin, Greek and English Classics.

"Let all would-be translators read, both for instruction and warning, Dr. Postgate's admirable treatise."—Sunday Times
