Economics & Philosophy

Editors

John A. Weymark, Vanderbilt University, USA

Richard Bradley, London School of Economics, UK

Fabienne Peter, University of Warwick, UK

Erik Schokkaert, Katholieke Universiteit Leuven, Belgium

Alex Voorhoeve, London School of Economics, UK (Book Review Editor)

The disciplines of economics and philosophy each possess their own special analytical methods, whose combination is powerful and fruitful. Each discipline can be enriched by the other. Economics & Philosophy aims to promote their mutual enrichment by publishing articles and book reviews in all areas linking these subjects. Topics include the methodology and epistemology of economics, the foundations of decision theory and game theory, the nature of rational choice in general, historical work on economics with a philosophical purpose, ethical issues in economics, the use of economic techniques in ethical theory, and many other subjects.

Think

Philosophy for everyone

Published for the Royal Institute of Philosophy

Editor

Stephen Law, Heythrop College, University of London, UK

Think has been created to forge a direct link between contemporary philosophy and the widest possible readership. The central aim of the journal is to provide to a very wide audience – encompassing undergraduates, 'A' level students, students in further education and the general public – highly accessible and engaging writing by philosophers pre-eminent in their fields. Think also aims to counter the popular impression that philosophy is pointless and wholly detached from everyday life. Its contributors sometimes expose some of the bad philosophy which currently passes as accepted wisdom in certain circles (e.g. religious, scientific, anthropological, etc). Perhaps most importantly, Think gives contemporary philosophers the chance to help nurture and encourage philosophers of the next generation.

Philosophy

Published for the Royal Institute of Philosophy

Editor

Anthony O'Hear, University of Buckingham, UK

Philosophy is the journal of the Royal Institute of Philosophy, which was founded in 1925 to build bridges between specialist philosophers and a wider educated public. The journal continues to fulfil a dual role: it is one of the leading academic journals of philosophy, but it also serves the philosophical interests of specialists in other fields (law, language, literature and the arts, medicine, politics, religion, science, education, psychology, history) and those of the general reader. Contributors are required to avoid needless technicality of language and presentation. Each issue contains an editorial on a topic of philosophical or public interest, and a 'New Books' section.

The institutional subscription includes two supplements and a subscription to Think.

Social Philosophy & Policy

Published for The Social Philosophy and Policy Foundation

Editors

Ellen Frankel Paul, Bowling Green State University, USA

Fred D. Miller, Jr., Bowling Green State University, USA

Jeffrey Paul, Jr., Bowling Green State University, USA

Social Philosophy and Policy is an interdisciplinary journal with an emphasis on the philosophical underpinnings of enduring social policy debates. The issues are thematic in format, examining a specific area of concern with contributions from scholars in philosophy, economics, political science and law. While not primarily a journal of policy prescriptions, some articles in each issue will typically connect theory with practice.

Kantian Review

Editors

Howard Williams, Aberystwyth University, UK
Graham Bird, University of Manchester, UK
Richard Aquila, University of Tennessee, USA

Kantian Review publishes articles and reviews selected for their quality and relevance to current philosophical debate in relation to Kant's work. In recent times Kant's philosophy has influenced contemporary philosophers over a wide range of issues from epistemology, metaphysics and philosophy of science to moral and political philosophy, philosophy of religion, aesthetics and teleology. Kantian Review invites contributions to these debates along with original accounts of Kant's texts, and of the development of his thought in its historical background.

Editors

Harvey Max Chochinov, University of Manitoba, Canada

Simon Wein, Rabin Medical Centre, Israel

Managing Editor

Donna Cassetta, Memorial Sloan-Kettering Cancer Center, USA

Palliative & Supportive Care is an international journal of palliative medicine that focuses on the psychiatric, psychosocial, spiritual, existential, ethical, and philosophical aspects of palliative care. Its aim is to serve as a resource for practitioners and researchers, from a wide array of disciplines, engaged in the care and study of those with life-threatening illnesses along the entire continuum of care from diagnosis to the end of life. The journal's scope is broad and relates to all aspects of palliative medicine that do not exclusively deal with the administration of palliative care or hospice services, or with the primary management of pain and physical symptoms in palliative care.

Submission Guidelines

Submitted papers must not be under consideration by any other journal. Any form of annotation and referencing may be used for the original submission, but accepted papers must be revised to conform to Utilitas house style. A copy of the style sheet is available from the Editor on request. Authors are responsible for observing the laws of copyright when quoting or reproducing material, and for any reproduction fees involved. Authors submitting a paper do so on the understanding that, if accepted for publication, exclusive copyright in the paper shall be assigned to the publishers. In consideration for assignment of copyright, the publisher will supply the author with a pdf of their article. Notwithstanding the assignment of copyright in their contribution, all contributors retain certain non-transferable rights, provided appropriate acknowledgement is made to Utilitas as the original place of publication. You will receive the Assignment of Copyright form for signature on acceptance of your paper.

All submissions, including book reviews, must be made through the Manuscript Central site: <http://mc.manuscriptcentral.com/uti>
