At the suggestion of the Executive Director, Cummings moved that the President-Elect be authorized to make substitute appointments if any of the persons he wished to appoint did not accept. The motion was approved without objection.

Election of the New Managing Editor

President Miller recommended that Dina A. Zinnes be appointed as the new Managing Editor of the American Political Science Review. Following discussion, Lowenthal moved to vote on the recommendation of President Miller. Zinnes' appointment was approved without objection. Two members of the Council abstained from voting.

Election of the New Executive Director

President Miller recommended that Thomas E. Mann be appointed as the new Executive Director of the Association. Dennis moved approval of the recommendation. Mann was unanimously approved for the position of Executive Director.

Kissinger Telephone Tapes Case Legal Fees

Kirkpatrick advised the Council that Jack Landau, Director of the Reporters Committee for Freedom of the Press Legal Defense and Research Fund, had requested that the Association, along with his group and the American Historical Association, each share a third of the out-of-pocket expenses that Covington and Burling had incurred during the Kissinger Telephone Tapes Case; the amount for each being $3,100. President Miller informed the Council of the Administrative Committee's recommendation that the Association pay the $3,100.

Sigel moved that the Council accept the Administrative Committee's recommendation that the funds be paid. The motion was approved by a voice vote.

Faculty Status of College and University Librarians

The Council reviewed a "Joint Statement on Faculty Status of College and University Librarians" which had been forwarded to them by Stanley H. Friedelbaum and concurred with the Administrative Committee recommendation that this matter should be tabled.

Committee on Professional Ethics and Academic Freedom

The Committee on Professional Ethics and Academic Freedom reported to the Council that:

In recognition of the increased concern and attention to human rights matters by the Association and the Committee and in response to expressions of interest by APSA members and some members of the Council, the Committee recommends that its name be changed to the Committee on Human Rights, Professional Ethics and Academic Freedom and that its charge be enlarged to formally accept matters relating to political science and human rights.

Schick moved to table the recommendation on a name change, but asked that the terms of the Committee's mandates be made clear.

Miller moved a substitute motion to refer the matter back to the Committee for clarification. Schick accepted the substitute motion.

Following discussion, Tanter called the question. The motion was defeated by a show of hands vote: for—8; against—13.

Tanter moved that, as recommended by the Administrative Committee, the name change of the Committee be approved as requested.

Schick moved a substitute motion that the committee be called the Committee on Professional Ethics, Professional Rights and Academic Freedoms. Verba suggested shortening the name to Professional Ethics, Rights and Freedoms. Schick accepted the suggestion. The motion was approved: for—12; against—3.

Schick moved to adopt the Committee recommendation, as amended. The motion was approved without objection.

The Committee also requested that:

In recognition of the able service of Special Representatives of the Committee on Professional Ethics and Academic Freedom, who seek to mediate cases before the Committee or act as investigators and serve without compensation and at the expense of personal time, the Committee recommends the Council express a vote of deep appreciation to them and that this be conveyed personally to the individuals by letter.

The following individuals have served as Special Representatives of the Committee: Twiley W. Barker, Joseph B. Board, James D. Carroll, Elmer E. Cornwell, Jr., Delmer D. Dunn, Valerie A. Earle, David Fellman, Thomas A. Flinn, Joseph V. Julian, John H. Kessell, Barbara B. Knight, Richard Lehne, Guenter Lewy, Charles H. McCall, Clifton H. McCleskey, Don C. Piper, Charles M. ### Report of the 1980 Program Committee

Jack Dennis, Chairman of the 1980 Program Committee presented the Council with copies of the Program.

The Council unanimously approved a vote of thanks to Jack Dennis and his excellent committee for an excellent program. Dennis thanked Eloise French of the National Office staff for the work she had done on the program.

Pre-Registration of Annual Meeting Participants

Kirkpatrick reminded the Council of the motion passed at the August 30, 1979 Council meeting that:

Each person participating in the Annual Meeting Program (including courtesy listings as well as the official program) as a chair, paper giver, or discussant is required to preregister for the meeting. All participants who are not members of the Association are urged to become members. It is understood that persons listed in the preliminary program will pre-register before July 1. Persons not registered by July 1 will not be listed in the final program.

He pointed out that a significantly higher proportion of program participants were preregistered in 1980 than were registered in 1979. He also pointed out that in early July of 1980, President Miller decided to have the final program printed in full, including the names of those participants who had not preregistered and that he (President Miller) and Program Chairman Jack Dennis wrote a personal letter to all participants who had not preregistered informing them (1) that their names would be listed in the final program, and (2) that they had an obligation to preregister in line with the Council policy.

Kirkpatrick advised the Council of the need to decide if in 1981 it wishes to fully implement the policy of deleting from the final program those participants who have not preregistered and, if so, that we needed to move the deadline from July 1 to June 1.

President Miller advised the Council that the Administrative Committee had recommended that the Council reaffirm the policy established in 1979, with the change in date. The Council approved the Administrative Committee's recommendation without objection.

Fiscal Crisis

Sundquist reviewed for the Council the fiscal crisis facing the Association and possible ways of increasing income and/or reducing activities and services. He presented the Council with a proposed dues schedule, based on the estimated number of members and additional income to be realized, and moved that the dues schedule printed below be approved by the Council for mail ballot referendum of the membership.

Lowenthal moved an amendment to include a category of income over $40,000—$75 dues. The amendment was approved by a show of hands vote.

The motion as amended was approved by a voice vote.

King moved that the Executive Director be instructed to bring to the next meeting of the Council detailed proposals for increasing the Association's income and membership. The motion was approved by a voice vote.

Jewell moved that it be the policy of this Council that the Executive Director and the National Office staff be encouraged to develop projects and programs in the fields of education, professional development and research support and, where appropriate, to engage in preliminary negotiations with foundations and other funding agencies prior to bringing formal proposals to the Council.

The motion was approved by a show of hands vote with three abstentions.

Lowenthal moved that a statement on the staff's view of the Association's role in research support and the conduct of research under Association auspices be prepared and presented to the Council. The motion was approved by a voice vote.

Proposed Constitutional Amendment Relating to the Selection of the Treasurer

Lowenthal moved that the following proposed constitutional amendment, recommended by Sundquist, be approved by the Council for mail referendum of the membership:

Whereas, the American Political Science Association is in severe financial straits because costs have been rising during the recent and current period of inflation while income has remained relatively stable, and

Whereas, these circumstances appear likely to continue, requiring annual decisions by the Council on measures to increase income or reduce programs, activities, and services of the Association, or both, and

Whereas, the Treasurer of the Association is the officer with the principal responsibility for analyzing, on behalf of the Council, the financial operations of the Association and presenting options for increasing income or reducing expenditures, and

Whereas, the effective exercise of that responsibility makes it highly desirable that the office be occupied by someone who, through service on the Council, has acquired a background of experience in considering issues of Association management,

Therefore, be it resolved, that the following language be added as a new paragraph 5 of Article V of the Constitution of the American Political Science Association:

Nominations for the office of Treasurer shall be from among members of the Association who, at the time of nomination, are serving as members of the Council or who have completed service during the preceding year.

King offered an amendment that Article V, clause 1, paragraph 2 be amended to read that "The terms of elective officers, except members of the Council and the Treasurer, shall extend. . . . The term of the Treasurer shall also extend for two years, similarly calculated."

Category	No. of Members	Present Dues	Suggested Dues	Additional Income
Students	2,105	$12	$15	$ 6,315
Retired	333	12	20	2,664
Income:
Under $12,000	1,036	25	40	15,540
$12,000-14,999	880	30		8,800
$15,000-19,999	1,671	35		8,355
$20,000-24,999	1,155	40	50	11,550
$25,000-29,999	578	45		2,890
$30,000 and over	1,073	50	65	16,095
Total additional income*				$72,209

*This assumes that any losses of income because of membership decline would be offset by gains resulting from movement of members from lower to higher income brackets.
