

INTERNATIONALISM UNDER STRAIN

THE NORTH-SOUTH POLICIES OF CANADA,
THE NETHERLANDS, NORWAY, AND SWEDEN

Edited by Cranford Pratt

A number of senior scholars offer interpretive essays on the North/South policies of four middle powers. The concluding chapter is a comparative study of the role of humane internationalism in the policies of these four countries and a prognosis of the influence that a humane middle-power internationalism may yet have on Northern responses to the challenge of global poverty. $40.00

“Affording Defense, is a concise summary of the pressing problems we face in providing an effective and affordable defense for the future. Jack [Gansler] is right to start with the need for a thorough review of our nation’s long-term strategy. Only with a firm strategic foundation can we build a defense establishment that will meet our Nation’s requirements into the next century.” — Sam Nunn, Chairman, United States Senate Committee on Armed Services

AFFORDING DEFENSE

Jacques S. Gansler

Gansler’s sensible proposals for reform and revitalization are based on extensive research and on his broad experience in private industry and in weapons procurement for the Department of Defense. He identifies areas where armed conflict may break out in the future, and considers the development of defense strategy and the difficult choices to be faced in carrying out that strategy.

Cornell Studies in Political Economy

A SERIES EDITED BY PETER J. KATZENSTEIN

IN THE DOMINIONS OF DEBT

Historical Perspectives on Dependent Development

By HERMAN M. SCHWARTZ. Arguing that continued dependency is compatible with both development and economic growth, Schwartz offers an innovative re-interpretation of dependency theory in light of the economic development of Australia, Argentina, and New Zealand, and of the development strategies of today's South Korea. $34.95

REASONS OF STATE

Oil Politics and the Capacities of American Government

By G. JOHN IKENBERRY. "By analyzing sequences of choices in a policy area at the intersection of domestic and international politics, John Ikenberry breaks new ground in the exploration of the institutional foundations of state action."
—Theda Skocpol, Harvard University.
$10.95 paper, $31.50 cloth

OPENING FINANCIAL MARKETS

Banking Politics on the Pacific Rim

By LOUIS W. PAULY. Pauly explores the reasons behind the retreat of protectionist policies in domestic banking systems, examining case histories of regulatory policy making in Canada, the United States, Japan, and Australia—four countries that frame the Pacific Rim, a region emerging as the financial linchpin of the international economy. $29.95

INTERNATIONAL COOPERATION

Building Regimes for Natural Resources and the Environment

By ORAN R. YOUNG. The notion of regimes as institutions that shape international behavior has received much attention as a way of understanding how sovereign states secure international cooperation. Young here seeks both to develop our theoretical grasp of international regimes and to expand the range of empirical applications of this line of analysis. $10.95 paper, $32.50 cloth

FAIR SHARES

Unions, Pay, and Politics in Sweden and West Germany

By PETER SWENSON. "An excellent book which will make a significant impact on our understanding of industrial and organized class relations in Sweden and Germany, as well as on comparative theory."—Peter Lange, Duke University.
$29.95

THE STATE AND AMERICAN FOREIGN ECONOMIC POLICY

Edited by G. JOHN IKENBERRY, DAVID A. LAKE, and MICHAEL MASTAND-UNO. This collection of essays by seven notable political scientists provides a theoretical reevaluation of the forces at work in national policy making and presents evidence that the effectiveness of the national government in shaping U.S. policy has been greatly underestimated. $9.95 paper, $29.95 cloth
