

114th APSA Annual Meeting & Exhibition

Boston, MA

August 30–September 2, 2018

Democracy and Its Discontents

Join APSA in Boston for the 114th Annual Meeting to address the latest scholarship in political science while exploring the theme, "Democracy and Its Discontents." APSA and the 2018 program chairs Henry Farrell, The George Washington University, and Anna Grzymala-Busse, Stanford University, look forward to your participation in panels and sessions prepared by APSA's numerous divisions and related groups at the 2018 meeting.

PROGRAM SCHEDULE

The annual meeting program is available at: <https://connect.apsanet.org/apsa2018/>. Times are subject to change. Registration is still available through August 24!

THEME PANELS

The official theme panels for the 2018 Annual Meeting are listed to the right. Review the participants on each panel and find detailed descriptions of each at: <https://connect.apsanet.org/apsa2018/theme-panels/>. If you're a panel participant, be sure to submit your paper to chairs and discussants by August 13.

PRECONFERENCE SHORT COURSES

Consider taking a short course! Short courses will take place prior to the annual meeting on Wednesday, August 29. They provide diverse opportunities, either half day or full day, for professional development and offer attendees the chance to connect with scholars from a range of backgrounds. Preregistration for short courses is required and is $25 per short course. Registration for short courses is available on the Annual Meeting registration page, as part of the registration process. See a full list of short courses available at: <https://connect.apsanet.org/apsa2018/pre-conference-short-courses/>. ■
