The 17th Annual Course on
International Law Librarianship

Rome, Italy

September 20-24, 1998

The Institute this year will be hosted by the International Institute for the Unification for Private Law, which will be headquarters for the Conference. The focus of this year's meeting will be varied; one day will be devoted to Vatican and Canon Law, with private tours of the Vatican Law Library and speakers on the Vatican legal system and new trends in Canon Law. A second day will include a visit to Florence and the European University Institute and legal publishers. Day three will focus on the Italian legal system and sources of materials.

Attendance at this conference will be limited to 110, because of the maximum capacity of meeting rooms at UNIDROIT. Conference registration, hotel and related materials, will be mailed in early March. Mailings will go automatically to all subscribers and members of IALL; others interested in attending should contact the IALL Secretary, Mrs. Britt S. M. Kjölstad, telephone number (41) 22 917 30 65; e-mail: bkjolstad@unog.ch.
