American Government. What it does. How it works. Where it stands.

Harper & Row texts help students find the answers.

PRINCIPLES OF AMERICAN GOVERNMENT

Third Edition

KENNETH PREWITT & SIDNEY VERBA

Noted for its clarity of writing, broadness of coverage, and interesting analysis, this text is more effective than ever in helping students grasp complex problems through an easy-to-understand approach. The text focuses on the relationship between the economy and the political system and shows how the issue of equality permeates political life by using a combination of institutional and behavioral approaches. Features include a new chapter on the bureaucracy... a combined chapter incorporating the most up-to-date research on parties and elections... and coverage of affirmative action and women's rights. Paper. Instructor's Manual and Test Bank. January 1980. 366 pages. ISBN 0-06-045278-1.

AN INTRODUCTION TO AMERICAN GOVERNMENT

Third Edition

Also by PREWITT & VERBA

Revised and updated to successfully meet the needs of courses in the 80's, this popular text employs a thought-provoking intellectual framework to cover all of the traditional aspects of American government. Special emphasis is given to the interrelationship between economics and politics. Highlights of the third edition include a stronger thematic focus on equality; a new chapter on the American bureaucracy; a greatly expanded chapter on the presidency; separate coverage of parties and elections; new and expanded material on the Constitution, affirmative action, the political role of blacks and the unemployed, school segregation, and many other topics. Instructor's Manual and Test Bank. 1979. 657 pages. ISBN 0-06-045279-X.

INSTRUCTIONS TO CONTRIBUTORS

Address correspondence about contributions to the Review to Charles O. Jones, American Political Science Review, Department of Political Science, University of Pittsburgh, Pittsburgh, Pennsylvania 15260. Please submit four copies of a manuscript to be considered for publication. Unfortunately, due to increased postage costs, we can no longer return manuscripts to the author. Manuscripts must be typed and mimeographed or photocopied, with all written material double-spaced (including quotations and footnotes). Use standard typewriter paper—avoid colored and light-weight stock. The typewritten lines should not exceed 5½ or 6 inches in length. Please do not send the original typescript. Since manuscripts are sent out anonymously for evaluation, the author's name and affiliation should appear only on a separate covering sheet. An abstract of less than 150 words should accompany the manuscript.

The reference form is that used by most scientific journals (for illustration, see any issue of the Review, June 1978, and after); brief parenthetical references are included in the text and all sources are listed alphabetically at the end of the article. The work of classical authors such as Aristotle or Plato may be cited by the standardized code familiar to scholars in the field and passing allusions to such authors do not require mention in the list of references. Conventional foot-of-column notes are used only for explanatory comments or in unusual cases to avoid lengthy in-text references.

All manuscripts will be examined carefully for length. Referees will be asked to recommend where cuts might be made, without affecting the principal contribution. Manuscripts over 30 pages will be reviewed with particular care to determine if such length is warranted. Except in extraordinary circumstances, manuscripts over 50 pages will be returned to the author. Resubmission may follow compliance with the page limit. Manuscripts must be prepared as noted above, double-spaced throughout, with standard margins. Tables, charts, footnotes, and references will be included in the page count.

Communications must follow the form of regular manuscripts (including reference listings where appropriate). They must not exceed five double-spaced pages, including references, footnotes, and tables. All but the briefest letters will be refereed.

Figures should be professionally presented: use high-quality white paper and India ink for maximum sharpness and clarity of line. Copies only should accompany the submitted manuscript, original art work being retained until requested by the editorial office. Tables should be typed on separate pages, with guides, e.g., "Table 1 about here" at the appropriate places in the manuscript.

Books intended for review and all book review correspondence should be sent to Holbert N. Carroll, Book Review Editor, American Political Science Review, Department of Political Science, University of Pittsburgh, Pittsburgh, Pennsylvania 15260. Authors are urged to call their books to the attention of the Book Review Editor to insure that the books will be considered for review.

Information, including News and Notes, for the Association's news-journal, PS, should be sent to 1527 New Hampshire Avenue, N.W., Washington, D.C. 20036. Advertising, reprint and circulation correspondence should be sent to the Executive Director at the Washington office. Domestic claims for non-receipt of issues must be made within four months of the month of publication; overseas claims, eight months. Advertising information and rates are available from Eloise French, Advertising Manager, APSA, 1527 New Hampshire Avenue, N.W., Washington, D.C. 20036.
