"I have read this translation with appreciation of the impressive dignity of its diction. The translator knows the Greek language and conveys the sense clearly. . . ."

—F. F. BRUCE

"A tour de force . . . . [It] combines scrupulous scholarship, expert knowledge of the original Greek, and the approach of a fresh and lively mind to the text of the New Testament."

—PAUL ELLINGWORTH

"This is a unique translation of the New Testament with startling and convincing theological thrust that opens up our understanding of the Gospel of Grace in a fresh way . . . ."

—THOMAS F. TORRANCE

"As a Jewish translator of the New Testament, he often brings out subtle meanings that escape the Gentile scholar. His translation is . . . dynamic at its best. It offers every reader new insights into the sacred text."

—E. EARLE ELLIS

"His work is fresh and vibrant, often providing sound alternative wording in comparison to that of the established conventional translations."

—MARVIN R. WILSON

CONTRIBUTIONS

Contributions, which may be in English, French or German, should be submitted in typescript (two copies) to Professor G. N. STANTON, King's College, Strand, London WC2R 2LS. Contributors are asked to follow the "Instructions for Contributors", NTS 34 (1988) 476-479. Each contributor will receive a copy of the number and 25 off-prints of his article free of charge. Authors will be responsible for all alterations to proofs which exceed 20% of the cost of composition.

MONOGRAPH SERIES

In view of the increasing number of typescripts which are being received for possible publication, those who wish to submit work are asked not to do so without first consulting the Editor who will be glad to advise about format, length and possible date of publication if the work can be accepted.
