

CRISIS IN THE PHILIPPINES

The Marcos Era and Beyond

EDITED BY JOHN BRESNAN

"Here is the background behind the newspaper headlines and television segments on the Philippines. Written by the best specialists on the subject, it is an invaluable source of information and wisdom."

—Stanley Karnow

In this timely volume twelve leading authorities explore the crisis in the Philippines, including its implications for the United States. They consider not only current issues but the historical origins of the Philippines' social, economic, and political problems. With a foreword by former Under Secretary of State for Political Affairs and U.S. Ambassador to the Philippines David Newsom, the book includes essays by experts from both the Philippines and the United States. Brought together by The Asia Society, the contributors write on their respective fields for the benefit of readers with no special knowledge of the Philippines, as well as for those with a longstanding interest in the country.

"In breadth and solid historical and current coverage, I know no book on the subject that remotely approaches this one. It will be immensely useful both to experts and to general readers — exact and scholarly enough for the former, readable and clear for the latter. The work is exceptionally well organized, and written with remarkable clarity and in many cases considerable style."

—William P. Bundy

This book was prepared as part of a project organized by The Asia Society, New York

P $10 95 C $30 00 at your bookstore or

Princeton University Press 41 William Street, Princeton, NJ 08540

China's Special Economic Zones

Problems and Prospects

Edited by Y.C. JAO and C.K. LEUNG, both of the University of Hong Kong

In this volume, the authors analyze the historical, political, geographical, legal, planning, and management aspects of the special economic zones, and discuss their original purposes, current problems, and future prospects in relation to China's overall program of modernization and economic reform.

1986 276 pp.; figs., tables $37.00

The Structure of Chinese Rural Society

Lineage and Village in the Eastern New Territories, Hong Kong

DAVID FAURE, University of Hong Kong

This book is a detailed study of the social history of a portion of the New Territories of Hong Kong from the 15th to the early 20th century. The author traces the rise of the lineage as an institution in this part of south China and sets it in the context of village organization and inter-village alliances.

1986 320 pp.; plates, maps $32.00

Metropolitan Management

The Asian Experience

K.C. SIVARAMAKRISHNAN, Ministry of Environment, Government of India and LESLIE GREENE, University College, London, and Institute of Public Administration, New York

Profiling sixteen South and East Asian cities, this work discusses an array of metropolitan management needs including adaptable network structures, stronger financial resources and administrative capacities at the municipal level, and development activities with established cyclical procedures for analysis, planning, and implementation.

(World Bank Research Publications)

1986 252 pp. $29.95

Government and Bureaucracy in India 1947-1976

B.B. MISRA, formerly of Delhi University

This volume examines the problems of governance within India's political framework of parliamentary democracy. Misra considers the constitution and management of the country's vast administrative system, its interaction with political elements, the changes implemented to improve efficiency, and the results of these changes.

1986 416 pp. $29.95

Now available in paperback

Winner of the Allan Nevins Prize

American Ambassador

Joseph C. Grew and the Development of the United States Diplomatic Tradition

WALDO H. HEINRICHS, Jr., Temple University

"This is first-rate biography and first-rate history."—New England Quarterly. "[A] carefully researched and well-written study."—The Review of Politics. This rich and intimate biography of the American ambassador to Japan during the years leading up to Pearl Harbor reconstructs the life of an extraordinary career diplomat, Joseph Clark Grew (1880-1965), providing new insight into U.S. strategy in the Far East during and after World War II.

1986 480 pp. $10.95

Islam in Asia

Religion, Politics, and Society

Edited by JOHN ESPOSITO, College of the Holy Cross

This wide-ranging volume brings together previously unpublished writings by leading authorities on Islamic affairs to provide the fullest picture of the diverse roles played by Islam in Asian public life today. The essays show how Islam permeates the government, national ideology, laws and political parties of Asian Muslims, and reveal the ways in which Islam currently influences both the domestic politics and foreign policies of Muslim countries.

February 1987 288 pp.; illus. paper $12.95* cloth $24.95

People's China

A Brief History

CRAIG DIETRICH, University of Southern Maine

"A balanced, lucid explanation of what has happened, and is happening, in the People's Republic of China."—Richard G. Martin, Troy State University. Clearly and chronologically, this book tells the essential story of contemporary China: the background, the ideology, the massive campaigns, the bureaucratization, the blunders, and the achievements.

1986 340 pp.; plates, figs., tables, maps paper $9.95* cloth $19.95

The Political Economy of Chinese Development Since 1949

CARL RISKIN, Columbia University

This comprehensive, interpretive economic history of China since 1949 presents the recent dramatic changes in China's approach to economic organization and development in a historical context. It analyzes the policies that grew out of the Soviet-type central planning, linking the successes and failures of reform to the still sharp contradictions in China's political economy. (Economies of the World)

1986 336 pp.; illus. paper $16.95* cloth $34.95

Modern India

The Origins of an Asian Democracy

JUDITH M. BROWN, University of Manchester

This original study examines how India's stable and culturally-rich society interacted with Western industrializing forces to form one of the world's largest democratic states. The first book to incorporate the revisionist research of the 1970s, Modern India offers a new and exciting understanding of the resources, patterns, and problems of Indian political life at all levels. (The Short Oxford History of the Modern World)

1985 448 pp.; figs., tables, maps paper $12.95* cloth $29.95

Prices and publication dates are subject to change.

To request an examination copy of books marked with an asterisk (), write on school letterhead giving full course information including course name, level, and enrollment to College Humanities Marketing Dept.*

To order, send check or money order to address below.

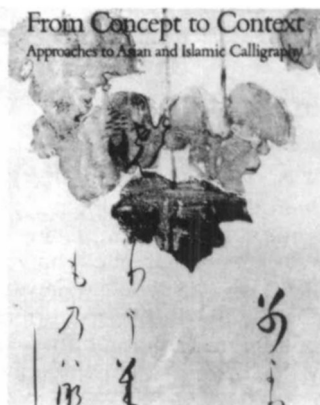

Oxford University Press

200 Madison Avenue • New York, NY 10016

FROM CONCEPT TO CONTEXT

Approaches to Asian and Islamic Calligraphy

Shen Fu, Glenn D. Lowry, and Ann Yonemura

15 color, 96 b&w illus.
166 pp. $22.50 (paper)

“In itself a thing of beauty. . . Besides well-written essays and entries, it contains translations of many of the beautiful but indecipherable texts.”

—Benjamin Forgey, The Washington Post

At fine bookstores or from

SMITHSONIAN INSTITUTION PRESS

P.O. Box 4866, Hampden Station • Baltimore, MD 21211

Now in paperback—

“An outstanding analysis of the first phase of the longest revolutionary struggle in modern history.”*

VIETNAMESE COMMUNISM 1925–1945 By HUỠNH KIM KHÁNH

“Based almost entirely on primary sources, this is one of the most thorough accounts yet written of the rise of Vietnamese communism. . . . The book contains a remarkable amount of research and will be useful to historians, general readers, and to policymakers seeking to understand [America’s] Vietnam tragedy.”—Foreign Affairs

“Vietnamese Communism, 1925–1945 represents an important turning point in the historiography of modern Vietnam, and it is assuredly the best book on the Communist party in a major Western language.”—*Gabriel Kolko, Journal of Contemporary Asia

11 b&w illustrations, 2 maps, 5 drawings.

$12.95 paper; $35.00 cloth

CORNELL UNIVERSITY PRESS P.O. Box 250, Ithaca, New York 14851

Man and Land in Chinese History An Economic Analysis

Kang Chao. A sweeping new interpretation of Chinese economic history emerges from this analysis of two millennia of economic developments in traditional China. Rejecting dynastic, positivist, and Marxian views, the author argues that since 200 B.C. China was a market economy consisting of countless small production units. With limited land for cultivation, freeholders and tenants were forced to adjust their economic choices and decisions in response to an increasing man-land ratio as population pressures mounted through the centuries. Although often labeled the culprit, it was not the unequal distribution of land but the increasing man-land ratio that led to China's impoverishment and technological stagnation. $35.00

Flexible Rigidities Industrial Policy and Structural Adjustment in the Japanese Economy, 1970–1980

Ronald Dore. Union monopolies, cartels, tied dealerships—all the things that free-marketers denounce as “rigidities”—are to be found in Japan in abundance and in exaggerated form. Yet Japan adjusted far better to the international economic shocks of the 1970's than other countries. Why? The author finds the answer in an unseen and unsuspected flexibility in the manifold rigidities of the Japanese economy. This study focuses on the Japanese labor market, tracing its impact on Japanese trade policies and practices and presenting a detailed case study of the national textile industry. The author believes that the peculiar evolution of Japanese capitalism holds lessons for the West, notably Great Britain, concerning issues far greater than efficiency, quality control, and competitive success on the world market. $32.50

Stanford University Press

STANFORD, CA 94305

THE WRITINGS OF MAO ZEDONG 1949-1976

Edited by Michael Y. M. Kau,
Brown University

John Leung,
*Babson College and
Brown University*

This work is the most complete edition of Mao's post-1949 works available anywhere and in any language, including Chinese. These authoritative translations include full source and editorial annotation, with citations of all known Chinese and translation sources for each document; a comprehensive bibliography; and an index. The index to each volume will be published separately in paperback, and a cumulative index will be contained in the final volume. The first volume will be published in November 1986, with the other volumes appearing over the next four years.

This critical edition of Mao's writings will be an indispensable guide to post-1949 Chinese politics and an invaluable research tool for those seeking to understand the momentous events of the last thirty-six years.

Order now and receive the first volume at the prepublication price of $75.00. After November 15, 1986, the price will be $90.00.

Volume I: September 1949-
December 1955

Before November 15, 1986 $75.00
On Publication $90.00

M. E. Sharpe INC.

80 Business Park Drive
Armonk, New York 10504

THE RECORD OF TUNG-SHAN

William F. Powell

Published in association with the Kuroda Institute

A unique form of religious literature representing virtually the only tangible traces of seminal figures in Ch'an history. $8.50, paper

HANDBOOK OF TAGALOG VERBS

INFLECTIONS, MODES, AND ASPECTS

Teresita Ramos and Maria Bautista

A concise, easy to understand supplement to texts in beginning and advanced-level Tagalog. $11.00, paper

THE PHILOSOPHICAL FOUNDATIONS OF HAN FEI'S POLITICAL THEORY

Hsiao-po Wang and Leo S. Chang

Society of Asian & Comparative Philosophy Monograph No. 3

Examines the philosophical foundations of the Han-Fei-tzu through careful analysis of five of its key chapters. $10.00, paper

Available Spring '87

TO ORDER: Send check or money order, plus $1.00 per book for shipping. VISA and MasterCard also accepted (include acct. no., exp. date, and signature).

UNIVERSITY OF HAWAII PRESS

2840 Kolowalu Street, Honolulu, Hawaii 96822

THE INDIAN STYLE

Raymond Head

A magnificent cultural tour documenting the continuous influence of Indian architectural and decorative style on the European sensibility from the seventeenth century to the present. Head demonstrates the impact of Indian motifs on a variety of works, offering examples from European and American cities.

Cloth $29.95

210 pages 114 halftones

COSMOLOGY AND SOCIAL LIFE

Ritual Exchange Among the Mambai of East Timor

Elizabeth G. Traube

Cosmology and Social Life is an exemplary study of ritual life, a contribution to the anthropology of symbolic forms, and an extended reflection on the ethnosociology of knowledge.

Paper $14.95 (est.) 296 pages

Library cloth edition $30.00 (est.)

The University of CHICAGO Press

5801 South Ellis Avenue, Chicago, IL 60637

"The book will make a significant contribution toward the understanding of the nature and history of U.S.-Korean relations of the past."

—Andrew C. Nahm
Western Michigan University

One Hundred Years of Korean-American Relations, 1882-1982

YUR-BOK LEE and WAYNE PATTERSON, editors

The centennial of the Korean-American (Shufeldt) Treaty, by which Korea and the United States established formal diplomatic ties, was marked by academic meetings in Korea and the United States. This volume is composed of papers by senior specialists in Korean-American diplomatic history who presented their ideas at the meetings in 1982 of the American Historical Association or the Association for Asian Studies.

204 pp.

1986

$24.95

The University of Alabama Press

P.O. Box 2877

University, AL 35486-2877

NEW AND NOTEWORTHY FROM KODANSHA

THE MOTHER OF DREAMS AND OTHER SHORT STORIES

Portrayals of Women in Modern Japanese Fiction
Edited by MAKOTO UEDA

Previously unavailable in English, this terrific collection of short stories by male and female writers focuses on the roles and dilemmas of women in postwar Japan. Memorable portraits have been created by such well-known authors as Kobo Abe, Yasunari Kawabata, and Sawako Ariyoshi, with an outstanding introduction by the editor, Makoto Ueda, professor of literature at Stanford University.

288 pages; 6" x 8"; $19.95

WAVES

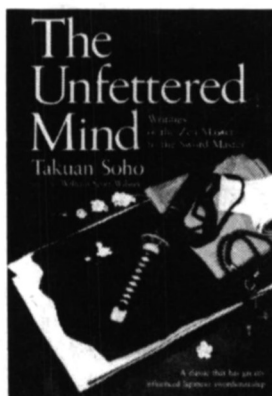

Two novels by Masuji Ibuse
MASUJI IBUSE

Here are two of the finest short novels by the author of the bestselling Black Rain. Waves: A War Diary is a sea-borne tale of a twelfth-century clan. Isle-on-the-Billows is an ironic story of a penal colony where Buddhist laws protect the animals. Both works are in English for the first time.

140 pages; 5 7/8" x 8 3/8"; $17.95

By the author of the bestseller, BLACK RAIN

THE UNFETTERED MIND

Writings of the Zen Master to the Sword Master
TAKUAN SOHO

Takuan was the spiritual mentor of Musashi and other famous swordsmen and shoguns. His pivotal writings gave birth to Zen swordsmanship and offered a philosophy and competitive strategy that is as useful to today's corporate warriors as it was to seventeenth-century samurai. His ideas will interest readers far beyond the martial arts world.

92 pages; 5" x 7 3/8"; $12.95

AVAILABLE
AT BOOKSTORES OR FROM:

KODANSHA INTERNATIONAL
10 EAST 53rd STREET, NEW YORK, NY 10022

FOR MAIL ORDER: SEND CHECK OR MONEY ORDER TO KODANSHA INTERNATIONAL. PLEASE ADD $2.50 PER BOOK FOR SHIPPING AND HANDLING PLUS APPLICABLE SALES TAX (N.Y. STATE RESIDENTS ONLY). ALLOW 4 WEEKS FOR DELIVERY. TO ORDER BY TELEPHONE (AMERICAN EXPRESS, VISA, OR MASTERCARD): CALL TOLL FREE: 1-800-638-3030 • (MARYLAND RESIDENTS: 1-301-824-7300): PRICES SUBJECT TO CHANGE WITHOUT NOTICE

Newsweek hails

“A remarkable tapestry of life in China today”

AFTER THE NIGHTMARE

by Liang Heng  and Judith Shapiro

Authors of SON OF THE REVOLUTION

When Liang Heng and his American wife, Judith Shapiro, left China in 1981 and wrote Son of the Revolution—the widely acclaimed story of Liang’s growing up in the nightmare of the Cultural Revolution—it seemed unlikely that they would ever be able to return. But in 1985 they did go back—traveling across China, talking with hundreds of Chinese, from Liang’s own parents to peasants, filmmakers, and government planners. This extraordinary book is the result: a revelation of what it is really like to live in China today.

“The best account published so far

of what the changes [Deng Xiaoping’s reforms since the Cultural Revolution] mean for ordinary Chinese.”

—DORI JONES YANG,
Business Week

“Extraordinary”

says The Washington Post

“In the winter of 1985 Liang and Shapiro went back [to China] for an extensive tour of Peking, Shanghai and Canton, for visits to distant rural areas from which they were supposedly forbidden, for conversations with Chinese at almost every level of society. What they found, as described in After the Nightmare, can only be described as extraordinary.”

—JONATHAN YARDLEY

“Penetrating, vivid, compelling”

says The N. Y. Times Book Review

“They talked to a fascinating array of people...Their vivid account of their remarkable journey across the face of China...provides not only a moving catalogue of victims ‘sacrificed on the altar of Mao’s revolution’ but also a compelling glimpse of the society that is being rebuilt out of the ashes of the Cultural Revolution...A penetrating book.”

—CAROLYN WAKEMAN

“Closely observed and beautifully written.”

—ARTHUR WALDRON,
Wall Street Journal

Photo © Jeff Bradley

Just published by Knopf

ASIAN STUDIES

LIBERALISM IN MODERN JAPAN

Ishibashi Tanzan and His Teachers, 1905–1960

by Sharon H. Nolte

Prewar Japanese liberals struggled against formidable obstacles. Nolte departs from studies of the extreme right or left, and challenges earlier interpretations of the weaknesses and errors of the democratic movement during the first half of the twentieth century. She traces the emergence of cultural criticism, public debate, and voluntary associations, with emphasis on three sophisticated, influential, and moderate liberals. $34.50

COMMUNIST NEO-TRADITIONALISM

Work and Authority in Chinese Industry

by Andrew G. Walder

"Walder does for Chinese factories what Dore and Cole did for Japanese factories and Berliner did for Soviet factories. He provides a definitive picture of Chinese factory life and makes a major theoretical contribution to comparative industrial sociology."—Susan Shirk, author of Competitive Comrades: Career Incentives and Student Strategies in China. $30.00

THIS BITTERSWEET SOIL

The Chinese in California Agriculture, 1860–1910

by Sucheng Chan

"Sucheng Chan has produced a stunning treatment of what Chinese accomplished in California agriculture, and in the process she has forced us to revise our notions about California's agricultural history. . . . A watershed in Asian American studies."—Roger Daniels, author of The Politics of Prejudice: The Anti-Japanese Movement in California and the Struggle for Japanese Exclusion. $35.00

NAN-CHING—THE CLASSIC OF DIFFICULT ISSUES

Translated and annotated by Paul U. Unschuld

For the first time this classic of Chinese medicine, compiled in the first century A.D. by an unknown author, is available in an English translation of the highest quality. Illuminated by the selected commentaries of Chinese and Japanese authors over the centuries, it is a monumental contribution to the literature. A volume in Comparative Studies of Health Systems and Medical Care. $65.00

TRADITIONAL HERBAL MEDICINE IN NORTHERN THAILAND

by Viggo Brun and Trond Schumacher

"I have been engaged in ethnopharmacological and ethnobotanical studies for 47 years and must confess that I have never encountered an example of more unique, thorough, well-integrated, interdisciplinary original research than this [book] represents."—Richard Evans Shultes, Harvard University. A volume in Comparative Studies of Health Systems and Medical Care. $45.00

At bookstores or order toll-free (800) 822-6657. Visa & Mastercard only.

CALIFORNIA

University of California Press Berkeley 94720

Penguin Looks East

SITTING IN DARKNESS Americans in the Philippines

David Haward Bain. Retracing American Colonel Frederick Funston's 1901 trek through the Philippine mountains to capture rebel leader Emilio Aguinaldo, Bain recreates a chapter of Philippine history while he shows how seeds of our current troubled relationship with these islands were sown decades ago. "Skillfully told... by a great historian." —The New York Times

0-14-008992-6

496 pp. $8.95

GRANTA 18: The Snap Revolution—James Fenton in the Philippines

Bill Buford, General Editor. This eyewitness, front-line account of the fall of President Marcos ranges from communist guerilla camps to pirate hideouts to the presidential palace moments after Marcos fled and "registers the chaos and absurdity, the rumor and superstition, of a country in turmoil." —The Observer (London)

0-14-008596-3

256 pp. $6.95

MADAME SUN YAT-SEN

Jung Chang. This fascinating biography follows Soong Ching-Ling from her education in the U.S. through her marriage, leadership in the Guomindang, exile in the Soviet Union, and eventual vice-presidency of the People's Republic. A volume in the Lives of Modern Women series.

0-14-008455-X

160 pp. $4.95

YOUTH IN CHINA

Beverley Hooper. A balanced, detailed report on the attitudes, aspirations, and problems of young people in post-Mao China, whose personal and material pursuits stand in contrast to the intense political commitment of their parents' generation. "A revealing glimpse of a nation in the throes of change." —ALA Booklist

0-14-008158-5

284 pp. $6.95

THE STORY OF THE STONE, VOLUME 5

The Dreamer Awakes

Cao Xueqin. Edited by Gao E. Translated by John Minford. "Indisputably the greatest masterpiece... of all the classic Chinese novels" (The New York Review of Books), The Story of the Stone is now available in its entirety (five volumes) from Penguin Books.

Volume 5: 0-14-044372-X

384 pp. $8.95

POISONED REIGN

Bengt Danielsson and Marie-Therese Danielsson. Foreword by Chris Masters. This timely study overviews France's century-and-a-half presence in the South Pacific, concentrating on the last twenty years of French nuclear testing near the Polynesian islands—from the displacement of native populations to the sinking of the Greenpeace flagship, Rainbow Warrior.

0-14-008130-5

328 pp. $6.95

DEATH OF THE RAINBOW WARRIOR

Michael King. Providing a detailed account of the sabotage of the Greenpeace flagship, Rainbow Warrior, and the intensive police investigations and international repercussions that followed, this report also raises important questions about France's accountability and its history of nuclear testing in the Pacific.

0-14-009738-4

224 pp. $5.95

NEW SONGS FROM A JADE TERRACE: An Anthology of Chinese Love Poetry

Translated, with an introduction and notes, by Anne Birrell. Critical essay by J.H. Prynne.

Tracing the development of the love poetry of the Southern Dynasties court poets from the second century B.C. through the sixth century A.D., this is the first English translation of the medieval anthology that was compiled by a court poet ca. 545 A.D.

0-14-044487-4

432 pp. $6.95

PENGUIN BOOKS Academic Marketing Department, 40 West 23rd Street, New York, N.Y. 10010

Crisis of the Raj
The Revolt of 1857 through
British Lieutenants' Eyes
WAYNE G. BROEHL, JR.

Seldom in history has an event so captured the popular imagination as the Indian Mutiny of 1857, when the Indian soldiers in the British army in India—the Sepoys—rebelled against their officers. This is an evocative illustrated account of the fierce battles and gruesome atrocities of that war, based on the letters of four very different, young British officers. The firsthand perspective and immediacy of Broehl's approach conveys much more than a typical military history. We learn what it was to be a soldier from the mightiest nation in the world defending Empire and Christianity on the one hand and the privately owned East India Company's interests on the other. $19.95

The Vietnamese Novel in French
A Literary Response to Colonialism
JACK A. YEAGER

Of the many legacies of French colonial rule in Vietnam, perhaps least appreciated is the body of Vietnamese literature written in French during this century. Jack A. Yeager studies over two dozen French novels produced by Vietnamese authors since 1925. In what reads like a cultural history as well as a literary study, he examines the Vietnamese colonial experience by placing these writers in their historical context and by providing a close reading of their novels. He discusses the hybrid form known as Vietnamese Francophone literature and then analyzes the novels and their common motifs. $27.50

After the Raj
British Novels of India Since 1947
DAVID RUBIN

Portrayals of British India by Rudyard Kipling, E. M. Forster, and their contemporaries have received considerable attention by literary critics. Yet until now there has been surprisingly little commentary about British novels of India written since Indian independence in 1947. This period of transition is perhaps the most dramatic in the history of modern India, and novels written during this time have attracted a great deal of popular attention. David Rubin, himself a novelist who has lived for extended periods in India, now gives those more recent British novels the critical attention they deserve. $19.95

UNIVERSITY PRESS OF NEW ENGLAND
3 Lebanon Street
Hanover, NH 03755

VOLUME 9
NOW IN PRINT!

CHINA

FACTS & FIGURES ANNUAL

Edited by John L. Scherer

"The editors consulted an impressive array of published sources foreign and domestic. . . . What emerges is not only the big picture but piquant details that dramatise the convoluted process of modernisation."—Asiaweek

"An indispensable reference . . . the most complete collection of data on the People's Republic of China that is readily available to the general public."—Air University Review

"Once again provides an impressive collection of facts and statistics gathered from a wide range of sources, all of which are cited."—The China Business Review

Volume 9 (1986) contains a special article from the Central Intelligence Agency, "China: Economic Performance in 1985. A Report Presented to the Subcommittee on Economic Resources, Competitiveness and Security Economics of the Joint Economic Committee." Volume 9 is divided into the following sections: Survey; Summary of Industrial and Agricultural Production, 1985; Government; Party; Armed Forces; Demography; Economy; Energy; Industries; Agriculture; Foreign Trade; Foreign Aid; Transportation; Institutions; Science; Culture and Communications; Health, Education and Welfare; Provinces and Cities; and Special Topics.

Volumes 1-9 contain over 3100 separate entries, tables, charts, figures and features in nearly 3200 pages. CHIFFA is a subscription publication. Send all orders direct to the publisher. Appears each summer. $69.50 by subscription, $89.50 separate volumes. Some back volumes available.

Of Related Interest

Mikhail I. Sladkovsky, China & Japan, Past and Present. Edited and translated by Robert F. Price. Forum Asiatica/1 (1975) $25. The importance of this book by the dean of Soviet specialists on East Asia is that it makes available in English the official Soviet views on the histories of China and Japan, and on the relations between them, down to the 1970s.

Order directly from

ACADEMIC INTERNATIONAL PRESS
Box 1111A Gulf Breeze FL 32561

Doctoral Dissertations on ASIA

compiled and edited by
Frank Joseph Shulman

Winter/Summer 1986
Volume 9 (Nos. 1 & 2)

Publication Date: November 1986

AAS members: $8

Non-Members: $13

Please send prepaid
order only to:
Association for Asian Studies
1 Lane Hall, U of Michigan
Ann Arbor, MI 48109

This latest edition of Doctoral Dissertations on Asia is the largest ever—170 pages with nearly 2200 entries. There is extensive coverage of American,
European and South Asian doctoral research on Asia.

Make checks payable to the Association for Asian Studies, Inc.

Official U.S. Department of State Records on East Asia

Records relating to Internal Affairs of CHINA, 1930-1949

(Decimal File 893)

"There is no single collection of English-language documents more important for the study of twentieth-century China than the State Department's Decimal File 893. In addition to chronicling Chinese affairs, this file offers a narrative of American policymaking toward China and insight into U.S. perceptions of a society in revolution."

—Mordechai Rozanski
Associate Professor of Chinese History
Adelphi University

1930-39: 167 rolls of 35mm microfilm, with guide. $8,350.

1940-44: 43 rolls of 35mm microfilm, with guide. $2,150.

1945-49: 69 rolls of 35mm microfilm, with guide. $3,450.

Records relating to Internal Affairs of JAPAN, 1930-1954

(Decimal Files 794, 894, 994)

"These records are an individual source of information on Japan. They will be particularly useful for an understanding of the ways in which foreign crises and wars transformed, and were in turn transformed by, Japanese politics and society."

—Akira Iriye
Professor of American Diplomatic History
University of Chicago

1930-39: 33 rolls of 35mm microfilm, with guide. $1,650.

1940-44: 20 rolls of 35mm microfilm, with guide. $1,000.

1945-49: 39 rolls of 35mm microfilm, with guide. $1,950.

1950-54: 51 rolls of 35mm microfilm, with guide. $2,550.

Records relating to Internal Affairs of KOREA, 1930-1954

(Decimal Files 795, 895, 995)

"Having the State Department's records on internal affairs of Korea available on microfilm makes possible easy access to this extremely rich file for the first time. Invaluable for all twentieth-century East Asian scholars."

—Earl H. Phillips
Center for Korean-American and Korean Studies
California State University, LA

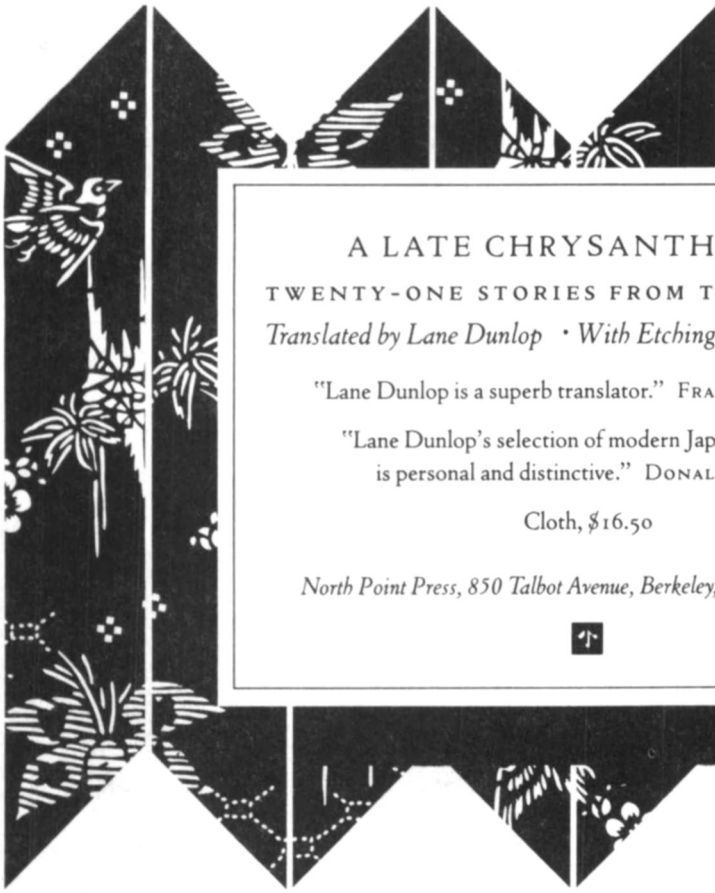

1930-54: 50 rolls of 35mm microfilm, with guide. $2,500.

All SR microfilm editions of State Department Decimal Files are complete and unedited, reproducing faithfully the contents and organization of the document collections held at the National Archives.

Copies of printed guides are available for your examination; please call or write with your request.

SR Scholarly Resources Inc.

104 Greenhill Avenue • Wilmington, DE 19805-1897
Call toll-free 1-800-772-8937

A LATE CHRYSANTHEMUM

TWENTY-ONE STORIES FROM THE JAPANESE

Translated by Lane Dunlop · With Etchings by Tanaka Ryobei

"Lane Dunlop is a superb translator." FRANK MACSHANE

"Lane Dunlop's selection of modern Japanese stories is personal and distinctive." DONALD KEENE

Cloth, $16.50

North Point Press, 850 Talbot Avenue, Berkeley, California 94706

Shaohsing Competition and Cooperation in Nineteenth-Century China

by James H. Cole/Assn. for Asian Studies Monograph No. XLIV

In the highly competitive society of Ch'ing China, the people of Shaohsing employed strategies of cooperation to meet the competition of too many scholars for too few jobs and too many peasants for too little land. Cole examines both local society and the network of native sons throughout the empire to show how competition at a given level was met with cooperation at the next lower, and how Shaohsing's success became criticized as not merely corrupt but unpatriotic when China entered the international arena.

315 pages. $21.00.

A Short Reference Grammar of Chinese Sentences with Exercises

by Henry H. Tiee

In this non-technical explanation of Chinese sentence structure, students are guided from the simple single-word-subject/simple-predicate sentence to transformed simple sentences and finally to compound and complex sentences. Examples and graded exercises accompany the lessons; and glossaries of vocabulary and grammatical terminology are provided.

375 pages. $14.95 paperbound.

The University of Arizona Press

1615 E. Speedway, Tucson AZ 85719

The Far East:

From Poetic Revelation to Political Revolution.

The Columbia Book of Later Chinese Poetry

Yüan, Ming, and Ch'ing Dynasties (1279-1911)
Translated and Edited by Jonathan Chaves.

The first comprehensive anthology of Chinese poetry from the three later dynasties, framed by a historical introduction, biographies of the poets, and reproductions of their original paintings. Translations from the Oriental Classics. 520 pp., illus., $29.95

The Isle Full of Noises

Modern Chinese Poetry from Taiwan
Edited and Translated by Dominic Cbeung.

A noted Chinese poet and scholar traces the development of contemporary poetry from Taiwan in this anthology. Modern Asian Literature. 272 pp., $27.50

After Apocalypse

Four Japanese Plays of Hiroshima and Nagasaki
Selected, Translated, and Introduced by David G. Goodman.

"An important collection."—Library Journal.
325 pp., photos, $26.50

The Bhagavad-Gita

Krishna's Counsel in Time of War
Translated by Barbara Stoler Miller.

The exemplary text of Hindu culture for centuries, the Gita is a compelling philosophical poem, translated here by a scholar of Sanskrit. 176 pp., line drawings, $20.00

Knowledge Painfully Acquired

The K'un-chih chi by Lo Ch'in-shun
Translated, Edited, and with an Introduction by Irene Bloom.

This book of reading notes and reflections on philosophy and history stands as a monument to the Chinese intellectual tradition. Neo-Confucian Studies.
256 pp., $35.00

Neo-Confucian Terms Explained

(The Pei-hsi tzu-i)
Translated by Wing-tsit Chan.

A summary of the wisdom and teachings of Chu Hsi (1130-1200).
Neo-Confucian Studies. 288 pp., $35.00

The United States' Emergence as a Southeast Asian Power, 1940-1950

Gary R. Hess.

Traces the American response to Japanese aggression, the nationalist revolutions, and the rise of Asian communism during the 1940s. 528 pp., $45.00

The Rise of Neo-Confucianism in Korea

Edited by Wm. Theodore de Bary and Jabyun Kim Haboush.

"An illuminating introduction to the ways in which Chinese Neo-Confucianism was transformed into an integral element of Korean culture."—Choice Neo-Confucian Studies. 512 pp., $40.00

Human Rights in Contemporary China

Randle Edwards, Louis Henkin, and Andrew J. Nathan.

"A penetrating analysis. It goes beyond liberal stereotypes and puts Chinese thinking about rights in the context of their culture and history."—Ezra F. Vogel. 193 pp., $25.00

Anvil of Victory

The Communist Revolution in Manchuria
Steven I. Levine.

A sophisticated look at the rural revolution in Manchuria that led to the Chinese Communist Party's rise to power. Studies of the East Asian Institute. 384 pp., illus. $40.00

University of Tokyo Press distributed in the U.S. and Canada

Five Political Leaders of Modern Japan

Yosbitake Oka; Translated by Andrew Fraser and Patricia Murray.
232 pp., $24.50

The Era of High-Speed Growth

Notes on the Postwar Japanese Economy
Yutaka Kosai; Translated by Jacqueline Kaminski.
240 pp., $24.50

— Now in Paperback —

The Columbia Book of Chinese Poetry

From Early Times to the Thirteenth Century
Translated and Edited by Burton Watson
Translations from the Oriental Classics. 385 pp., $44.00 pa

From the Country of Eight Islands

An Anthology of Japanese Poems
Edited and Translated by Hiroaki Sato and Burton Watson; Introduction by Thomas Rimer.
A Morningside Book. 652 pp., $14.50 pa

Escape from Predicament

Neo-Confucianism and China's Evolving Political Culture
Thomas A. Metzger.
Studies of the East Asian Institute. 303 pp., $13.00 pa

To order, send check or money order to Dept. JN at the address below, including $2.00 for postage and handling.

Columbia University Press

136 South Broadway, Irvington, NY 10533

NEW FROM CAMBRIDGE...

CHINA AND THE CHRISTIAN IMPACT

A Conflict of Cultures

Jacques Gernet

Janet Lloyd, Translator

Presenting for the first time a coherent analysis of the impact of Christianity in the seventeenth century from the Chinese point of view, Jacques Gernet reveals what the Chinese said and wrote about the Jesuit missionaries.

Cloth $49.50 Paper $17.95

CENTRE AND PROVINCE IN THE PEOPLE'S REPUBLIC OF CHINA

Sichuan and Guizhou 1955-1965

David S.G. Goodman

Concentrating on the neighboring but contrasting provinces of Sichuan and Guizhou during the decade before the Cultural Revolution, this book examines the interaction between center and province and, without adopting a "centralist" or "pluralist" viewpoint, argues that a spatial dimension is of necessity part of the Chinese decision-making process.

Contemporary China Institute Publications About $39.50

STATESMEN AND GENTLEMEN

The Elite of Fu-chou, Chang-hsi, in Northern and Southern Sung

Robert Hymes

A study of a critical subject in Chinese social history: the way in which, during the twelfth and thirteenth centuries, China's ruling meritocratic principal aim was the consolidation of their power, wealth and influence on a local rather than a national and dynastic basis. Professor Hymes offers a remarkable picture of the institutional and social changes this process entailed.

Cambridge Studies in Chinese History, Literature and Institutions About $44.50

THE CAMBRIDGE HISTORY OF CHINA

Volume I: The Ch'in and Han Empires, 221 BC-AD 220

Dennis Twitchett, Michael Loewe, Editors

This volume begins with the establishment of the Ch'in empire in 221 B.C. and ends with the abdication of the last Han emperor in A.D. 220. This period witnessed major evolutionary changes in almost every aspect of China's development. Like other volumes in the series, Volume I summarizes the information given in primary sources in the light of the most recent critical scholarship.

About $99.50

DEVELOPMENT ECONOMICS ON TRIAL

The Anthropological Case for a Prosecution

Polly Hill

Polly Hill's book calls for increased use of economic anthropology by economists. Working with information collected in West Africa and South India, Dr. Hill demonstrates how the assumptions of most development economists are unreliable and Western-biased. She goes on to illustrate the relevance and potential of economic anthropology for economists.

Cloth $34.50 Paper $10.95

Available at bookstores or call Customer Service at 1-800-431-1580.
In NY and Canada 914-235-0300. MasterCard and Visa accepted.
Cambridge University Press, 32 East 57th Street, New York NY 10022.

Now available in paperback

Against the State

Politics and Social Protest in Japan

David E. Apter and Nagayo Sawa

This scrutiny of modern protest politics focuses on the 20-year-long struggle surrounding the building of the Tokyo International Airport.

"[The authors] listen carefully to voices in the generation-long conflict . . . From these voices [they] skillfully create a narrative that is simultaneously a penetrating case study, a sophisticated but never obtrusive theory, and a phenomenologically rich portrayal of the people involved . . . It is a rarity in the social sciences—a good read."

—New York Times Book Review

$8.95 paper

$8.95 at bookstores, or from

HARVARD UNIVERSITY PRESS

79 Garden Street, Cambridge, MA 02138

MAN SEI! THE MAKING OF A KOREAN AMERICAN

Peter Hyun

In this gripping account of life in Seoul just prior to the March First Uprising in 1919 and exile in Shanghai afterwards, Peter Hyun describes growing up in an occupied Korea subject to Japanese colonial rule. $17.50, cloth

THE CHINESE LANGUAGE

FACT AND FANTASY

John DeFrancis

NOW IN PAPER. "A refreshing, often controversial review of fundamental conceptions and misconceptions about the language."

—CHOICE $12.50, paper $20.00, cloth

SHIMODA STORY

Oliver Statler

"A remarkable job in telling us the story of the isolated foreigner in a seacoast village in late Tokugawa Japan." —Teruko Craig, BOSTON HERALD $19.95, paper

TO ORDER: Send check or money order, plus $1.00 per book for shipping. VISA and MasterCard also accepted (include acct. no., exp. date, and signature).

UNIVERSITY OF HAWAII PRESS

2840 Kolowalu Street, Honolulu, Hawaii 96822