MEMOIR OF SIR JAMES Y. SIMPSON, BART.

The EXECUTORS of the late Sir J. Y. SIMPSON are making arrangements for the preparation of a BIOGRAPHY, and would feel much obliged by persons possessing interesting Letters from him, or interesting Information regarding him, sending the same to ROBERT SIMPSON, W.S., 23, St. Andrew-square, Edinburgh.

N.B.—All documents sent will be duly acknowledged, carefully preserved, and afterwards returned.

A PARTNER IS REQUIRED in a Practice in a wealthy and improving rural suburb of London. Preference would be given to a married gentleman about thirty, with some private income, and experience in Lunacy, as well as General practice. Appointments exceed £200 a year.—Address, stating experience and means at command, to M. R. C. S., Messrs. Carritt and Son, Solicitors, 24, Basinghall-street, City.

THE NORTH OF ENGLAND SANITARIUM,

A Select Temperance Home, for Ladies exclusively.

Is delightfully situated on the north bank of the river Tyne, amidst a landscape seldom equalled in rich variety and extent, two miles east from Haltwhistle railway-station, telegraph and post office; and about as far west from that of Bardon Mill, midway between Gilsland and Hexham; all near to that grandest and most interesting of antiquarian relics in Britain—the Roman Wall.

The remarkable healthfulness of the locality conspicuously indicates Hightown as naturally adapted for the important use to which it is devoted. Of the 623 districts into which the Registrar-General has apportioned England and Wales, that of Bellingham, ten miles to the north-east of Hightown, with a population of 7,000, stands alone as the most healthful; and two of the three next after Bellingham—viz., Glendale and Rothbury—are also in Northumberland. The atmosphere is most invigorating, and replete with ozone. The height above the sea-level is 350 feet; which according to Weber (see p. 182 of the "Proceedings of the Roy. Med-Chir. Soc. of London," for May, 1869, is so essential to invalids. The annual rainfall is the English average, about thirty inches (see the yearly publication by Mr. Symons, 136, Camden-road, London), such as the laws of nature require for the maintenance of health. The water supply is practically unlimited, and of the rarest excellence for every purpose, from a lively uncontaminated brook, and a copious natural fountain. Hightown stands on its own gentle eminence, naturally sheltered on all sides, except the south, by an amphitheatre of high land, which especially protects it on the north.

All the rooms are ventilated in the most efficient yet agreeable manner, and are thoroughly sunned and cheerful; in fact, the Sanitarium combines the usual comforts of a town residence, with the perfections of a country-house, equally adapted for winter and summer. The number of boarders being limited, Mr. and Mrs. Hurman, assisted by their two daughters, can guarantee the fullest attention to each individual.

No case of legally-defined insanity can be received; but those afflicted with Dipso-mania will meet with the kindest and most successful treatment.

Address—Mr. HURMAN, Hightown, Haltwhistle, Northumberland.

DR. CHAPMAN'S SPINE-BAGS (PATENT),

For the Treatment of Disease through the agency of the nervous system, by the application of Dry, Cold, and Heat along the Spine.

These bags are of two kinds, each being also varied in size according to the requirements of the patient.

One kind, used chiefly for the application of ice, is divided into two, three, or more cells, either by external clamps or by internal septa, in order to hold the ice or iced-water in apposition with the whole or any part of the back, the patient being enabled to remain upright or to walk about meanwhile. The mouth of each of these bags is closed by a clamp. The other kind, used chiefly for the application of heat, but also of moderate degrees of cold, consists of two parallel tubes, a little distance apart, and communicating at top and bottom, the mouth of the bag being closed by a screw.

The Spinal Ice-Bag, when applied in appropriate cases, is soothing and agreeable, as well as curative.
