

Editor's Note

The time has come for changing the editorial team of the Nordic Journal of Linguistics. I take this opportunity to thank all the readers and contributors for their interest in our journal during the four years I have been responsible for editing the journal. Special thanks are extended to our excellent book review editor, Jan-Ola Östman, who has been helping me with the editing job in many more respects than just the book reviews. I would also like to thank all the people at the Scandinavian University Press and Taylor & Francis with whom I have had the pleasure to work.

The new addresses for submissions are as follows:

Phonology manuscripts and/or manuscripts from the Americas should be sent to:
