

EDITORIAL NOTE

From 1 January 1994, Journal of Linguistics has a new editorial team: Robert D. Borsley and Ian Roberts are the Editors, Maggie Tallerman is the Reviews Editor and Ewa Jaworska is the Editorial and Administrative Assistant. JL's basic editorial policy remains unchanged: to publish original and innovative research in all areas of general linguistics. We would like to take this opportunity to thank Nigel Vincent for his many years of long and dedicated service to JL, and to welcome him and the other new members to the Editorial Board.
