

Only Son

By Walter Farrell, O.P.

12/6 net

For two years Father Walter Farrell had been working on the life of Our Lord. Nine chapters were finished, and most of the tenth. He had come to the end of the page he was typing. Something interrupted him. Before he had an opportunity to sit down at his typewriter again, he was dead. It was obvious that what he had written must be published. But its incompleteness posed a problem. The first idea was to ask some other writer to finish it; but Father Farrell's way of writing was entirely his own. Then it was remembered that in the fourth volume of his monumental Companion to the Summa there were chapters of Our Lord's death and resurrection. This was the solution; Father Farrell should complete Father Farrell.

"THAT THE CHURCH MAY SPREAD AND INCREASE: this is the intention for which we must offer our prayers and our labours", says Pope Pius XII in his encyclical on the Mystical Body.

The work of the Mill Hill Fathers in Africa, India, the Far East and New Zealand, has this one aim. You can work with them for the spread of the Church by fostering vocations to the missionary priesthood.
