Annual Review of Applied Linguistics

An official journal of the American Association for Applied Linguistics (AAAL)

Editor

Alison Mackey, Georgetown University/Lancaster University

Annual Review of Applied Linguistics provides a comprehensive, up-to-date review of research in key areas in the broad field of applied linguistics. Each issue is thematic, covering the topic by means of critical summaries, overviews and bibliographic citations. Every fourth or fifth issue surveys applied linguistics broadly, offering timely essays on language learning and pedagogy, discourse analysis, teaching innovations, second-language acquisition, computer-assisted instruction, language use in professional contexts, sociolinguistics, language policy, and language assessment, to name just a few of the areas reviewed.

Journal of Linguistics

The Journal of the Linguistics Association of Great Britain

Editors

Kersti Börjars, University of Manchester, UK

S.J. Hannahs, Newcastle University, UK

Journal of Linguistics has as its goal to publish articles that make a clear contribution to current debate in all branches of theoretical linguistics. The journal also provides an excellent survey of recent linguistics publications, with around thirty book reviews in each volume and regular review articles on major works marking important theoretical advances.

'The Journal of Linguistics is one of the top journals for theoretical linguistics. It's chock full of new ideas and wonderfully free of theoretical orthodoxy.' Ivan Sag, Stanford University.

INSTRUCTIONS FOR CONTRIBUTORS

English Language & Linguistics (ELL) uses the ScholarOne manuscript management system for handling submissions. Please use and follow the detailed instructions in ELL's Instructions for Contributors which are available through the following link: <https://mc.manuscriptcentral.com/elangling>.

General enquires can be sent to ELL's editors using this email address: ellsubmissions@cambridge.org.

Submission of an article is taken to imply that it has not been previously published and is not being considered for publication.

International Society for the Linguistics of English (ISLE)

ELL is the journal associated with ISLE, the International Society for the Linguistics of English. The central aim of ISLE is to promote the study of the English language, that is, the study of the structure, history and use of standard and non-standard varieties of English, in terms of both form and function, at an international level. The society aims to provide a geographically and theoretically neutral central contact point for all those who are academically active and who identify with this aim. Members of ISLE are eligible for a discount subscription to ELL. For information on ISLE conferences, other ISLE activities, and how to become a member, visit www.isle-linguistics.org.

This journal issue has been printed on FSC-certified paper and cover board. FSC is an independent, non-governmental, not-for-profit organisation established to promote the responsible management of the world's forests. Please see www.fsc.org for information.
