

NATIONAL UNIVERSITY OF SINGAPORE

DEPARTMENT OF CHINESE STUDIES

Applications are invited for teaching appointments in the Department of Chinese Studies from candidates who possess a relevant PhD degree. Preference will be given to those who are able to teach in at least two of the following areas:

Classical/Modern Chinese Literature
General History of China
Modern China/Chinese in Southeast Asia
Translation

The medium of instruction is Chinese; however, candidates must also be able to teach in English.

Besides appointments on normal 3-year contracts, visiting appointments for one or two years will also be considered.

Gross annual emoluments range as follows:

Lecturer	S$ 55,910 - 71,400
Senior Lecturer	S$ 65,200 - 122,820
Associate Professor	S$108,820 - 151,480

(STG£1.00 = S$2.30 approximately)

The commencing salary will depend on the candidate's qualifications, experience and the level of appointment offered. In addition, a 13th month Annual Allowance (of one month's salary) and an Annual Variable Component (of normally 2 month's salary) are payable at year end, under the flexible wage system, to staff on normal contracts.

Leave and medical benefits will be provided. Depending on the type of contract offered, other benefits may include: provident fund benefits or an end-of-contract gratuity, a settling-in allowance, subsidised housing or a housing allowance, education allowance for up to three children subject to a maximum of S$16,425 per annum per child, passage assistance and baggage allowance for the transportation of personal effects to Singapore. Staff members may undertake consultation work, subject to the approval of the University, and retain consultation fees up to a maximum of 60% of their gross annual emoluments in a calendar year.

All academic staff will be given a networked microcomputer with access to an IBM mainframe computer, UNIX hosts, a supercomputer, departmental laser printers, a wide spectrum of software, on-line library catalogue, CD-ROM databases, Teleview, INtv, Bitnet and Internet.
