THE EVANGELIZATION OF THE ROMAN EMPIRE

Identity and Adaptability

By E. Glenn Hinson

$22.00

The organized discipline through which the early Christians gained their triumph, Hinson asserts, should be an antidote to concern over the institutionalism found in the Church today.

The Social Setting of Pauline Christianity

Essays on Corinth

By GERD THEISSEN. Translated by John H. Schutz. This significant exploration and interpretation of the social world of early Christianity treats Paul's correspondence with the Christian community of Corinth—providing a composite picture of the social stratification at this ancient urban center and of the concrete organizational and ethical problems it engendered for the Christians' common life. $19.95 cloth

The Early Church

By W.H.C. FREND. This book, now available in North America for the first time, charts the main events in the institutional life of the church during its first five centuries and correlates those events with the doctrinal history of early Christianity. Professor Frend also discusses the great leaders of the early Christian world. $11.95 paper

The Fatherhood of God and the Victorian Family

The Social Gospel in America

By JANET FORSYTHE FISHBURN

The Social Gospel movement that emerged in America between the Civil War and World War I continues to have an impact wherever religion and society interact. With its dual focus on both individual and society, both historical event and theological image, The Fatherhood of God and the Victorian Family sets this movement in fresh perspective. Professor Fishburn shows how the personal story of "conservative" pioneers and leaders—above all Walter Rauschenbusch—as well as the social and intellectual currents of the time influenced their "liberal" thought and action.

First Fruits

THEY WENT WILLING TO BECOME SLAVES THEMSELVES . . .

Two hundred and fifty years ago, two young Moravians left their comfortable community of Herrnhut convinced that they were called of God to preach to the slaves in the West Indies. They went, willing to become slaves themselves, in order to minister to these oppressed people. You will learn of the suffering and persecution which the Moravians endured for their faith in Jesus Christ. You will share the agony of their community in reaching the decision to send the young men forth at a time when missions to the pagan masses were unthinkable. You will rejoice over the first fruits of ministry and the resulting impact on the course of Christian history.

Richard Hooker and the Politics of a Christian England by Robert K. Faulkner

Often dismissed as an apologist for the Elizabethan settlement between Church and State, the author of Laws and Ecclesiastical Polity is here revealed as a profound and original thinker concerned with the moral and political requirements of a Christian order, who was opposed to Puritan zealotry and Machiavellian atheism.

BREWER PRIZE CONTEST

The American Society of Church History is pleased to announce a new competition for a booklength manuscript in church history. The award will consist of a subsidy of $2,000.00 to assist the author in the publication of the manuscript. The winning manuscript shall be published in a manner acceptable to the Society, and have printed on its title page, "The Frank S. and Elizabeth D. Brewer Prize Essay of the American Society of Church History." If competing essays are otherwise of equal quality, preference will be given to those topics relating to the history of Congregationalism.

Complete manuscripts in final form, fully annotated, must be received by William B. Miller, Secretary, American Society of Church History, 305 East Country Club Lane, Wallingford, PA 19086, by 15 December 1982, with return postage included. No manuscript previously submitted will be considered. The award will be announced at the spring meeting of the Society in 1983.

The 1980 winner of the Brewer Prize was "Preserving the Peace: Community Development and Ministerial Ideals in Revolutionary New Hampshire," by Douglas H. Sweet.

PHILIP SCHAFF PRIZE

The American Society of Church History takes pleasure in announcing the 1981–82 Philip Schaff Prize. The prize is in the amount of $1,000.00 to be paid to the author of the best book published in English, originating in the North American scholarly community, and presenting original research or interpretation in the history of Christianity or any period thereof.

Books considered for this award must be published during the years 1981 or 1982. Any member of the Society may nominate titles for consideration for the Schaff Prize. Copies of books do not have to be submitted. Titles nominated for consideration of the award must be received by the chairperson of the Committee on Research of the Society or William B. Miller, Secretary, American Society of Church History, 305 East Country Club Lane, Wallingford, PA 19086, by 1 March 1983. The announcement of the winner of the Schaff Prize will be made at the annual meeting of the Society in December 1983.

The 1979–1980 winner of the Philip Schaff Prize was The Age of Reform, 1250–1550: An Intellectual and Religious History of Late Medieval and Reformation Europe, by Steven Ozment (Yale University Press).
