

BARD THOMPSON
HUMANISTS
&
REFORMERS
A History of the Renaissance and Reformation

"A fascinating, illuminating, judicious, fair, and comprehensive study of the Renaissance, the Reformation, and Catholic renewal. Its distinctive qualities are the vividness of the writing, enlivened with flashes of humor, and its thorough analysis of the theology and politics of the period. Perhaps most remarkable of all is its brilliant use of paintings, sculptures, and architecture of the period illustrated by 140 black-and-white and 82 colored prints. It will prove equally attractive to the scholar and to the intelligent layperson."

— Horton Davies
Princeton University

"A comprehensive history of the Renaissance and Reformation. . . . Bard Thompson tells the story with understanding, with clarity, and in all its diversity and breadth."

— Robert L. Wilken

Worship and Theology in England

3 Volumes

HORTON DAVIES

Horton Davies's classic five-volume study of the history of worship and theology in England from the Reformation to the present is here reprinted and expanded in this three-book paperback edition. Volume VI in Book III is an entirely new work by Davies that fills the historical gap from 1965 to the present, recording the crises, creativity, and current trends visible in the churches of England today.

"An achievement in liturgical studies unequaled by living scholars in the English-speaking world — now brought up-to-date."

— JAMES F. WHITE

"The most comprehensive treatment we possess of Christian life in England since the Reformation."

GERMAN NATIONALISM AND RELIGIOUS CONFLICT

Culture, Ideology, Politics, 1870–1914

Helmut Walser Smith

The German Empire of 1871, although unified politically, remained deeply divided along religious lines. Helmut Walser Smith offers the first social, cultural, and political history of this division. He argues that Protestants and Catholics lived in different worlds, separated by an “invisible boundary” of culture, defined as a community of meaning.

As these worlds came into contact, they also came into conflict. The ongoing conflict, conditioned by a long history of mutual intolerance, was an integral part of the jagged and complex process by which Germany became a modern, secular, increasingly integrated nation.

THE PHYLLIS GOODHART GORDAN BOOK PRIZE

THE RENAISSANCE SOCIETY OF AMERICA has instituted an annual book prize of $1,000, in memory of the late Phyllis Goodhart Gordan, a strong supporter of the RSA from its early days. The purpose of the prize is to recognize significant accomplishment in Renaissance Studies by members of the RSA and to encourage Renaissance scholarship.

The second Gordan Prize will be awarded to the author of the best book in Renaissance Studies published between July 1, 1995, and June 30, 1996. Authors of book submissions must be current members of RSA. The winner will be announced at the annual national meeting at Vancouver, April 3-6, 1997.

The prize will be awarded to a book written in one of the disciplines recognized by the RSA. Please see the inside cover of the bi-annual Directory of Members of the RSA for the list of disciplines. The prize will be awarded for a book dealing with a Renaissance topic within the chronological period, 1300-1700. The following are offered as examples of topics: a vernacular or neo-Latin literary author, topic, or text; humanism in any of its forms; printing; a Renaissance city-state and/or its institutions; the art or an artist of the period. These topics are not meant to exclude other possibilities. Bibliographical works and scholarly aids are eligible for the Gordan prize, but editions of texts and translations will not be considered. The book must be written in English.

Books will be judged on the following criteria:

- A. Contribution to Renaissance studies
- B. Originality in insight and research
- C. Clarity and eloquence
- D. Thoroughness and accuracy in documentation.

One copy of each work, together with a brief curriculum vitae, must be received by each of the following prize committee members. Each entry should be labeled "Gordan Prize Entry." Entries must be postmarked by or on July 15, 1996, to be eligible. Late entries will not be considered.

Contact the RSA office for names and addresses of committee members.
