A History of East Central Europe—

Historical Atlas of East Central Europe

Paul Robert Magocsi
Cartographic design by
Geoffrey J. Matthews

For the first time in any language, here is an atlas that covers all of East Central Europe, from the early fifth century to January 1993. The atlas encompasses the countries of Poland, the Czech Republic, Slovakia, Hungary, Romania, Slovenia, Croatia, Bosnia-Herzegovina, Yugoslavia, Macedonia, Albania, Bulgaria, and Greece. Also included are the eastern part of Germany (historic Mecklenburg, Brandenburg, Prussia, Saxony, and Lusatia), Bavaria, Austria, northeastern Italy (historic Venetia), the lands of historic Poland-Lithuania (present-day Lithuania, Belarus, and Ukraine up to the Dnieper River), Moldova, and western Turkey. Organized chronologically, eighty-nine full color maps and accompanying text constitute a history of the region.

Volume I, A History of East Central Europe
