
The Glorious Cause

The American Revolution 1763–1789

Robert Middlekauff

'The story of the war between Britain and America is brilliantly told. And Robert Middlekauff, in these chapters, writes with wit, clarity, and compassion. I do not know of anything better and faster moving... It is a very brave attempt... it has what all good narrative history should have – vigour, a quick eye for the telling event, commitment.' Sunday Telegraph. £15 Oxford History of the United States

The Oxford Illustrated Literary Guide to the United States

Eugene Ehrlich and Gorton Carruth

This handsome, heavily illustrated book will be the definitive literary guide to the fifty states. It presents a huge array of facts about American writers, famous and otherwise, from Revolutionary times. Illustrated £17.50

American Vistas 1607–1877

Leonard Dinnerstein and Kenneth Jackson

This edition retains the most successful articles from the previous one, but includes selections on the restrictions of freedom in colonial America, and on women, work, and protest in the textile mills in Lowell, Mass. in the Jacksonian era. New biographical essays also provide important historical insights. Fourth edition paperback £6.50

Entertaining Satan

Witchcraft and the Culture of Early New England

John Demos

The author deliberately ignores the Salem witch trials in order to show how prevalent witchcraft was throughout New England in the last half of the 19th century. His book is partly a collection of case histories of witchcraft episodes, and partly an intense examination of the psychological, sociological, and historical reasons why such an outbreak of alleged witchcraft happened in that place at that time. £17.50

Oxford University Press

The Political System of the United States

John D. Lees

The political problems and uncertainties which confront those who are in government in the United States in the 1980s make it imperative for all students of American affairs to obtain some understanding of the contemporary nature of the country's political system. This book is intended as an introductory guide to that system, tracing the interdependence of political institutions, constitutional practice and social forces in the political development of the US. For the new edition John Lees has completely revised his text to provide an up-to-date background to the understanding of national politics in America during the present decade. Third edition. Faber Paperbacks £5.95

Strangers in Paradise

The Hollywood Emigrés 1933-1950

John Russell Taylor

This book chronicles the varied fortunes of the intellectuals who as refugees from Nazi Europe found themselves temporarily or permanently marooned in Southern California. They included, of course, such renowned figures of world cinema as Buñuel, Lang and Renoir, all of whom came to work in Hollywood; but Los Angeles also became the home of writers like Brecht, Huxley, Isherwood and Mann, of composers such as Rachmaninov, Schoenberg and Stravinsky, and of a host of actors, designers and musicians. The story of how they came to terms with the place, its inhabitants and one another is – as John Russell Taylor shows – frequently bizarre, often funny and sometimes tragic. £8.25

Pound/Ford The Story of a Literary Friendship

Edited by Brita Lindberg-Seyersted

A natural extension of The Selected Letters of Ezra Pound 1907-41 (now available in Faber Paperbacks, price £4.95) this is the first in a sequence of substantial scholarly volumes devoted to Pound's remarkable correspondence with his friends and contemporaries. Drawing on a mass of previously unpublished material, the book documents with letters, essays, reviews and reminiscences one of the most significant literary relationships in the history of modernism. £20.00 and to be published shortly:

Robert Lowell A Biography

Ian Hamilton

A definitive biography – tragic and compelling – of the brilliant and tormented writer who dominated post-war American poetry. Quoting generously from letters, manuscripts and interviews made exclusively available to him by Lowell's friends and heirs, Ian Hamilton has produced an unforgettable account of one of this century's leading literary figures. £12.50

faber and faber

Anglo-American Landscapes

A Study of Nineteenth-Century Anglo-American Travel Literature

CHRISTOPHER MULVEY

During the nineteenth century hundreds of Englishmen and Americans visited each other's country, then published accounts of their journeys in the form of travel books. Christopher Mulvey examines the aesthetic values inherent in such books, and the national prejudices and preconceptions betrayed by their authors — a fascinating and entertaining chapter in cultural history. £15.00 net

Freedom: A Documentary History of Emancipation, 1861-1867

Selected from the Holdings of the National Archives of the United States
Series II: The Black Military Experience

Edited by IRA BERLIN

The first of a series of documentary histories of emancipation designed to tell the story of the transit of black people from slavery to freedom in the United States. This volume provides a social history of black soldiers, and shows how the experience of soldiering shaped the life of black people and helped to destroy slavery. £37.50 net

Building a New American State

The Expansion of National Administrative Capacities, 1877-1920

STEPHEN SKOWRONEK

The first full-scale historical treatment of the development of American national administration. Stephen Skowronek examines the reconstruction of institutional power relationships that had to be negotiated among the courts, the parties, the president, the Congress and the states in order to accommodate the expansion of national administrative capacities around the turn of the twentieth century. £25.00 net

Labor's War at Home

The CIO in World War II

NELSON LICHTENSTEIN

Examines a critical period in American political and labour history, from the outbreak of war in Europe in 1939 through the wave of major industrial strikes that accompanied the reconversion to a peace-time economy. Professor Lichtenstein analyses both the internal organisational and social dynamics of the labour movement and its relationship to the Roosevelt administration, with particular reference to the Congress of Industrial Organisation. £20.00 net

CAMBRIDGE UNIVERSITY PRESS

YALE

Confidence Men and Painted Women

A Study of Middle-class Culture in America, 1830-1870

Karen Halttunen

Because of their own insecurity about the hypocrisy of sophisticated society, the American middle classes of the mid-nineteenth century embraced the culture of sentimentalism, an elaborate system of rules insisting upon perfect sincerity in all aspects of appearance and conduct. Halttunen describes in lively detail the dress, etiquette, and mourning ritual of sentimental America. Illustrated £16.50

Too Hot to Handle?

Social and Policy Issues in the Management of Radioactive Wastes

edited by Charles A. Walker, Leroy C. Gould, and Edward J. Woodhouse

Eminent specialists from a variety of fields present technological, public health, political, social, psychological, and ethical perspectives in waste management and offer alternatives for dealing with this crucial problem of nuclear safety in America.

Cloth £16.00 Paper £4.95

Bibliography of American Literature

Volume Seven: James Kirke Paulding to Frank Richard Stockton

Compiled by Jacob Blanck

Prepared for publication by Virginia L. Smyers and Michael Winship

This latest volume of this standard bibliography contains more than 3,300 numbered entries by forty authors. First editions are presented in chronological order, with briefer descriptions of books containing first appearances. £65.00

Big Story

How the American Press and Television Reported and Interpreted the Crisis of Tet 1968 in Vietnam and Washington Abridged Edition

Peter Braestrup

This is a prize-winning analysis of how the news media failed to cover the true story of the Tet offensive, now reissued with a new introduction and added notes. Cloth £21.00 Paper £7.95

Managing Social Security Disability Claims

Jerry L. Mashaw

Can administration, bureaucratically organised, provide real justice? This study of the largest adjudicative apparatus in the Western world, the U.S. Social Security Administration, demonstrates that it can. £21.00

Suing Government

Citizen Remedies for Official Wrongs

Peter H. Schuck

Schuck examines the causes of misconduct by U.S. officials such as police, social workers, teachers, and public hospital staff and then evaluates the different judicial remedies available to American citizens injured by bureaucratic wrongdoings. £21.50

Mary Chesnut's Civil War

edited by C. Vann Woodward

"The finest work of literature to come out of the Civil War, perhaps one of the half dozen or so most important diaries in all literature." — Reid Beddow, The Washington Post Book World

Winner of the 1982 Pulitzer Prize in History
Now in Paperback £10.95

How Courts Govern America

Richard Neely

"A minor classic on how American courts operate (not to say govern)." — J. Patrick Lewis, Business and Society Review

Now in Paperback £6.95

Yale University Press

13 BEDFORD SQUARE · LONDON WC1B 3JF

INDIAN JOURNAL OF AMERICAN STUDIES

The Indian Journal of American Studies is an inter-disciplinary journal devoted to various aspects of American life and culture. It is published twice a year, in January and July, by the American Studies Research Centre, Hyderabad, India. It includes articles, notes, review articles and book reviews.

The Journal publishes work primarily by Indian scholars but also by specialists of any nationality on the history, institutions, literature, and culture of the United States. Manuscripts on any aspect of American Studies are invited. The editorial policy is not committed to any ideology or political viewpoint and does not preclude responsible discussion of controversial topics.

Articles submitted for possible publication in IJAS must be typed double space on one side of paper with proper margins and must follow the MLA Style Sheet in form and style, or some comparable professional style.

Publishers are invited to send their recently published books for review in this journal.

Annual subscription: Rs.16 (India); $5.00 (USA and Canada);
£2.00 (Europe and United Kingdom)

The Journal is also available for exchange.

Articles appearing in the Journal are abstracted and indexed in Historical Abstracts and/or America: History and Life published by the American Bibliographical Centre and indexed in MLA International Bibliography published by the Modern Language Association of America.

For further information, write to: Dr Robert M. Crunden, Editor, IJAS, American Studies Research Centre, Hyderabad 500 007, A.P., India.

NOTES FOR CONTRIBUTORS

- 1 All contributions and editorial correspondence should be sent to: The Editor, Journal of American Studies, School of English and American Studies, University of East Anglia, Norwich NR4 7TJ, England.
- 2 Articles should generally contain about 5,000 words. Longer or shorter articles, or articles in two or more parts, may be accepted by arrangement with the Editors.
- 3 Submission of an article is taken to imply that it has not previously been published, and is not being considered for publication elsewhere.
- 4 Contributions should be clearly typed in double spacing (including footnotes), preferably on A4 paper, with a wide left-hand margin. Diagrams, maps and illustrations may be included.
- 5 Spelling may conform either to British or American usage, providing it is consistent throughout.
- 6 Footnotes should be used sparingly: in general, to give sources of direct quotations, references to main authorities on disputable questions, and evidence relied on for a new or unusual conclusion. They should be numbered consecutively, and may most conveniently be placed, in double spacing, at the end of the article.
- 7 For guidance on matters of style, contributors should refer either to the MLA Handbook (1977), or to the Journal of American Studies Style Notes, copies of which may be obtained from the Editors.
- 8 Contributors should keep one copy of the typescript for correcting proofs.
- 9 Notes intended for the Editors or Printer should be on a separate sheet.
- 10 First proofs may be read and corrected by contributors provided that they can give the Editor an address through which they can be reached without delay and can guarantee to return the corrected proofs to the Editor, by airmail where necessary, within three days of receiving them.
- 11 Corrections should be kept to an absolute minimum. They should be confined to errors of the typist or printer unless the Editor authorizes otherwise.
- 12 Contributors of articles and review essays receive 25 free offprints. Extra copies may be ordered according to a scale of charges.
- 13 Contributors need not be members of the British Association for American Studies. Unsolicited typescripts can only be returned to overseas contributors who send International Reply Coupons (not postage stamps).
- 14 Contributors of accepted articles will be asked to assign their copyright, on certain conditions, to Cambridge University Press, to help protect their material particularly in the USA.

Journal of American Studies

American Progressives and the European Left MELVYN STOKES	5
The Voice of the Fiction Factory in Dime and Pulp Westerns CHRISTINE BOLD	29
Evangelicals, Whigs and the Election of William Henry Harrison RICHARD CARWARDINE	47
Fitzgerald: the Tissue of Style DONALD MONK	77
Comment
In Defense of Ethnohistory COLIN G. CALLOWAY	95
Review Essay
The New Oxford History of the United States ROGER THOMPSON	101
Reviews	107

© Cambridge University Press 1983

Cambridge University Press

The Pitt Building, Trumpington Street, Cambridge CB2 1RP
32 East 57th Street, New York, NY 10022

Printed in Great Britain at the University Press, Cambridge