THEATRE RESEARCH / RECHERCHES THEATRALES

The International Federation published the journal Theatre Research/Recherches Théâtrales from 1959 to 1975 when it was succeeded by Theatre Research International. During these years many important articles of original research were published covering the whole field of theatre history from the earliest times, and particularly Shakespeare and the Elizabethan period, to more recent figures such as Strindberg, Craig and Beckett. There have been special issues on the themes of Opera, the Playwright as Director, and Reinhardt; a check-list of world theatre on records; and reports on International Conferences and Symposia of the I.F.T.R.

In all 13 volumes were published in 35 issues. Back issues are still available.

University and institutional libraries, and especially those who have recently subscribed to the new journal Theatre Research International, are recommended to take this opportunity of completing their holding of the earlier issues of this publication, while copies last.

Price: per issue £1.75 ($4); per volume £3.50 ($8)

It is intended to publish one final volume (Vol. XIV), which will contain an Index to the fourteen volumes during 1978.

A few complete runs of the 14 volumes, including the Index, will be available at £50 ($115)

Shakespeare: The Globe and the World

S. Schoenbaum

Based on a major Folger Library exhibition, travelling around the United States between October 1979 and August 1981, this book has been designed to function independently as a celebration of the world's greatest poet and dramatist. It presents rare, and in many cases, unique books and manuscripts, prints, drawings, paintings, curios, and other memorabilia illustrating various aspects of Shakespeare's career, and is a striking and readable introduction to Shakespeare and his age. Illustrated £12.50

The End of the World

An Introduction to Contemporary Drama

Maurice Valency

This study of the influence of symbolism in twentieth-century drama begins with Mallarmé and ends with the plays of Samuel Beckett, which the author sees as the final consummation of the movement. He deals with the drama of Maeterlinck, Pirandello, Giraudoux, Ionesco, and Beckett, and with the theories of Artaud, to present an over-all picture of the central figures and plays in contemporary drama.
