

Contemporary Issues in Aboriginal Studies

4th NATIONAL CONFERENCE

Cairns College of TAFE
from

22nd September to 3rd October 1993

Conference Theme

“Make way, we come strong”

CONFERENCE DIRECTOR

Dr. BARRY WRIGHT
CAIRNS COLLEGE of TAFE
PMB 1 CAIRNS
QLD 4870
Ph: (070) 507503

LIST OF CONFERENCE TOPICS

- Sociology/Psychology
- Aboriginal Health & Medicine. How far have we come. Including health issues, drugs, alcohol, children's health, AIDS etc.
- Education in the 90's. Aborigines and Education: early childhood, primary, secondary, TAFE, University, teacher training, traditional education and values, theoretical issues etc.
- Arts and Culture
- Politics, landrights, mining, national parks, the law etc.
- Aborigines and the law, policing, Aborigines in custody etc.
- Anthropology, Archaeology, Museum Studies (i.e. return of sacred objects)
- The year of indigenous peoples
- The urban environment - Aborigines in urban Australia
- Aborigines and tourism - Aboriginal land, rangers and ranger training, access to sacred sites
- History and pre-history, Aborigines in the armed forces, any and all aspects of Aboriginal history.
- Aboriginal communications - media, film, poetry, writings
- Interdisciplinary session
- Aboriginal women: their contribution and role
- Community Development & Economic Independence
- Aborigines and the Environment

This list of topics is not meant to be in anyway restrictive and delegates are encouraged to add any areas overlooked in this list. As in the first three conferences of this name held at Nepean CAE in 1986 87-88, the proceedings will be published as a bound volume with an ICBN number and have a panel of three editors and so will count as an international referred publication.