

Prix Paul Guggenheim 2017

For the nineteenth time, the Paul Guggenheim Prize, amounting to CHF 15'000, will be awarded to a monograph on an important theme in the field of public international law (except European law). The monograph must be of the highest quality and be the work of a young author at the beginning of his/her career. Works submitted may be in the form of published books or of manuscripts intended for publication; they may be written in English, French, German, Italian or Spanish. Works which have already been awarded a prize of a similar nature will not be considered.

Applicants are requested to send to the Paul Guggenheim Foundation their submission consisting of the following items:

- letter of application
- curriculum vitae
- list of publications
- four copies of the work

Applicants must specify whether the monograph submitted has already been awarded one or several prizes.

The closing date for the reception of submissions is 15 November 2017.

The rules of the Paul Guggenheim Prize are available on the website of the Graduate Institute: www.graduateinstitute.ch

INFORMATION FOR CONTRIBUTORS

The Israel Law Review welcomes unsolicited articles and book reviews. For detailed submission instructions, see <http://journals.cambridge.org/isr/afc>

To be considered for publication and submitted to the review procedure, submissions should be within the scope of the Journal, as described on the inside front cover. Consideration will normally be given only to original material that has not previously been published. In exceptional cases material that is currently under review elsewhere will be considered. Authors are asked to indicate clearly with their submission if this is the case.

Submissions should be written in good English and so authors are encouraged to have their contributions edited for language prior to submission, where necessary.

Article submissions should contribute specifically to scholarly discussions in the fields of human rights, public law and/or international law, and normally be in the range of 8,000 to 15,000 words (including footnotes), although longer submissions may be accepted.

The Israel Law Review welcomes reviews of books covering the Journal's areas of focus. Book reviews are subject to the standard review procedure. Books are not sent to unsolicited reviewers.

Submissions should be prepared in editable electronic word-processing format (MS Word) and emailed to: Professor Yaël Ronen, Academic Editor, ilr@savion.huji.ac.il
