

Congratulations Society Prize Winners | 2022 CNSF Congress

We look forward to seeing the first place prize winning presentations during the Grand Plenary at this years Congress in Montreal, June 27, 2022 at the Fairmont Hotel, The Queen Elizabeth, beginning at 7:30 AM. Second place prize winners and the Anti-NMDA prize winner will present their abstract as an e-poster during one of the Poster Moderated Sessions.

Basic Abstracts of these winning papers are included in this Abstract Supplement publication. Check the Table of Contents for exact page listings.

2022 CNS | SOCIETY PRIZE WINNERS

Adil Harroud | CNS André Barbeau Memorial Prize

"The Genetic Basis of Multiple Sclerosis Severity"

Jean-Pierre Falet | CNS Francis McNaughton Memorial Prize

"Deep Learning Prediction of Response to Disease Modifying Therapy in Primary Progressive Multiple Sclerosis"

Nabeela Nathoo | CNS Anti-NMDA Receptor Encephalitis Foundation Prize

"Extreme delta brush in anti-NMDAR encephalitis correlates with poor functional outcome and death"

2022 CNSS | SOCIETY PRIZE WINNERS

Jeffrey Zuccato | CNSS K.G. McKenzie Memorial Prize for Basic Neuroscience Research

"Identifying clinically relevant prognostic epigenetic subtypes of chordoma and their non-invasive detection in plasma"

Stephano Chang | CNSS K.G. McKenzie Memorial Prize for Basic Neuroscience Research - 2nd Place Prize

"Spatiotemporal Mapping and Decoding of Oculomotion in the Pediatric Frontal Eye Field"

Alexander Rebchuk | CNSS K.G. McKenzie Memorial Prize for Clinical Neuroscience Research

"The Impact of Brain Invasion on Intracranial Meningioma Grading"

Michael Honey | CNSS K.G. McKenzie Memorial Prize for Clinical Neuroscience Research - 2nd Place Prize

"Prospective cohort analysis of normal versus mild cognitive impairment for quality of life outcome following DBS for Parkinson's disease"

2022 CSCN | SOCIETY PRIZE WINNER

Gord Jewett | CSCN Herbert Jasper Prize

"Measurement of Decremental Response is Repeatable in Amyotrophic Lateral Sclerosis"

2022 CACN | SOCIETY PRIZE WINNER

Jennifer Gettings | CACN President's Prize

"The Epilepsy Surgery Experience in Children with Infantile Spasms at a Tertiary Care Centre in Canada"