Monthly Public Health Law Webinar Series

October 18, 2012

November 15, 2012

1-2 pm ET

Every month ASLME and its partners bring together experts in various public health fields to discuss timely and critical topics—including medical countermeasures, gun violence and firearms law, health impact assessments, primary care provider roles, and many more. The webinars are free and open to all interested parties. Registration is required.

The webinar series is presented in partnership by: the American Society of Law Medicine and Ethics; Network for Public Health Law; Public Health Law Association; and Public Health Law Research Program.

2012 Public Health Law Conference: Practical Approaches to Critical Challenges

October 10-12, 2012

Atlanta, GA

This conference will gather public health and legal experts from across the country to learn about and discuss today's critical challenges in public health law. Top experts will lead insightful sessions on a range of emerging issues from a variety of perspectives. Attendees will return home inspired and equipped to improve public health with legal solutions.

36th Annual Health Law Professors Conference

June 6-8, 2013

Seton Hall Law School

Newark, New Jersey

This conference is intended for professionals who teach law or bioethics in schools of law, medicine, public health, health care administration, pharmacy, nursing, and dentistry. ASLME's Annual Health Law Professors Conference combines presentations by experienced health law teachers with the opportunity for discussion among conference participants. The program is designed to provide participants with updates on issues at the forefront of law and medicine and to provide them with the opportunity to share strategies, ideas, and materials.
