

ANNOUNCEMENTS

Conference Announcement: The History of Economics Society will sponsor four sessions at the Allied Social Sciences Association (ASSA) meetings January 3–5, 2003 (Friday, Saturday, Sunday) in Washington DC. Please consult the HES web site (<http://eh.net/HE/HisEcSoc/>) for further information.

International Walras Society: The AIW will meet on September 20, 2002 at the University of Lyon 2, France. The AIW is interested in all aspects of Walrasian economics and related studies. The registration form, details about the conference, and a form to apply for membership in the Society for those who wish to do so, can be downloaded from the Society's website: http://www.unil.ch/cwp/walras\_colloques.htm.

AISPE Conference: The 7th annual conference of the Associazione Italiana per la Storia del Pensiero Economico will be held in Brescia, Italy, January 23–25, 2003. The theme of the conference is “The Changing Firm: Contributions from the History of Economic Thought,” and the conference will include both thematic and open sessions. Sessions will be in Italian and English. Scholars who would like to give a paper either on the general topic or in open sessions are asked to send a title and an abstract of no more than 150 words by September 15, 2002. Further information about the conference can be found on the conference web site: (<http://dipartimento1.dse.uniroma1.it/aispe/aispe/.asp>). Contact: Marco E. L. Guidi, Dipartimento di studi sociali, Università di Brescia, Via S. Faustino 74/B, 25122 Brescia Italy (email: guidi@eco.unibs.it; fax: +39 030 2988 893).

Turgot Conference: On May 7–10, 2003, the National Institute for Demographic Studies (Institute National d'Etudes Demographiques), the Turgot Society (Societe des Amis de Turgot) and the University of Caen will organize in Lantheuil Castle (Calvados, low Normandy) a Conference devoted to the action, publications, and influence of the father of French liberalism, controller general A.-R.-J. Turgot, “Turgot (1727–1781), Our Contemporary: Economics, Administration and Government in the Enlightenment.” This conference will not only study the fundamental contribution made by Turgot to the economic thought of the Enlightenment, but also measure what lessons can be drawn today from his reflection and from his actions. Contact: Jacqueline Hecht, INED, 133 bld Davout, 75020 Paris, France (Tel: 33 (0)1 56 06 21 14 or 33 (0)1 56 06 20 24; Fax: 33 (0)1 56 06 21 93; email: varlet@ined.fr).

Call for Papers, ECHE 2003: The Eighth Annual European Conference on the History of Economics will be held at the Technical University of Lisbon, Lisbon,

Portugal, May 2–4, 2003. The conference will have as its theme, “Economics and Exile: Émigrés in the history of 20th century economics.” Proposals of all kinds will be welcomed, whether they involve portraits of individuals or the histories of groups and institutions, or take some other innovative approach. As usual, the aim of the ECHE will be to feature a relatively small number of papers. To participate, please submit a proposal containing roughly 1000 words, indicating both the original contribution of the paper and how it relates to the theme of the conference. The deadline for receipt of proposals is September 15, 2002, notice of acceptance or rejection will be sent on October 1, 2002, and completed papers will be due on March 15, 2003. All proposals and requests for information should be sent to: José Luís Cardoso, CISEP-2003 ECHE, Rua Miguel Lupi 20, P-1200 Lisbon, Portugal (phone: (351-1) 391-25-30/395-57-45; fax: (351-1) 396-73-09; e-mail: jcardoso@iseg.utl.pt).