

The Psychiatrist

FORMERLY THE PSYCHIATRIC BULLETIN

EDITORIAL

- 1 Problem gambling: what can psychiatrists do?
Sanju George, Henrietta Bowden-Jones, Jim Orford,
Nancy Petry

ORIGINAL PAPERS

- 4 Impact of an integrated rapid response psychiatric liaison team on quality improvement and cost savings: the Birmingham RAID model
George Tadros, Rafik A. Salama, Paul Kingston, Nageen Mustafa, Eliza Johnson, Rachel Pannell, Mahnaz Hashmi
- 11 Two-year follow-up study of patients with dementia in an NHS continuing care unit
Dilini Jayalath, Kuttalingam Shankar, Kunle Ashaye

CURRENT PRACTICE

- 15 Use of electronic health records in identifying drug and alcohol misuse among psychiatric in-patients
James Bell, Cise Kilic, Reena Prabakaran, Yuan Yuan Wang, Robin Wilson, Matthew Broadbent, Anil Kumar, Vivienne Curtis

EDUCATION & TRAINING

- 21 Qualitative study of medical students' experiences of a psychiatric attachment
Claire Archdall, Tanya Atapattu, Elizabeth Anderson
- 25 Psychiatric training for the next generation
Clare Oakley, Josie Jenkinson, Femi Oyebo
- 30 Foundation Programme psychiatry placement and doctors' decision to pursue a career in psychiatry
Thomas A. Kelley, Janet Brown, Stuart Carney

COLUMNS

- 33 Correspondence
- 39 Review
The Psychiatric Report: Principles and Practice of Forensic Writing
- 39 Obituary
Dr Nasnaranpattiyage Don George Leslie
- 40 e-Interview
Tasmin Ford

Cover image

In this issue, Sanju George and colleagues (pp. 1-3) make the case for psychiatrists doing more to recognise and treat problem gambling among their patients.

Image © Guy Undrill 2013.