

PART 4
ASTRONOMER'S HANDBOOK

ASTRONOMER'S HANDBOOK

The Astronomer's Handbook (IAU Transactions XIIC, edited by J.-C. Pecker and IAU Transactions XIIIIB, edited by L. Perek) contains documents of permanent value. Only the parts changed after the XIVth General Assembly are supplemented here. The numbering of paragraphs is the same as in XIIC.

PART 1 OF ASTRONOMER'S HANDBOOK

I. SHORT HISTORY OF THE INTERNATIONAL ASTRONOMICAL UNION

D. Table 2 should be supplemented as follows:

XIVth General Assembly, 1970, Brighton, Sussex, England
Members of the Union, after the General Assembly	2590
Participants (850 Members)	2255
Number of Commissions	39
Volumes of Transactions A	566 pages
B	378 pages
Highlights 1970	805 pages
President: B. Strömngren	1970-73
General Secretary: C. de Jager	1970-73
Assistant General Secretary: G. Contopoulos	1970-73
Vice-Presidents: B. J. Bok	1970-76
B. Lovell	1970-76
E. R. Mustel	1970-76

II. ADMINISTRATION AND FINANCES OF THE UNION

A. ADMINISTRATION

The address of the Secretariat is:

International Astronomical Union
Space Research Laboratory
The Astronomical Institute
21, Beneluxlaan
UTRECHT
The Netherlands

The Secretariat is headed by the General Secretary, C. de Jager. The staff of the office consists of the Executive Secretary, A. Jappel, the Secretary of the office, Mrs J. Daňková, and a typist.