American Political Science Association

The APSA Distinguished Teaching Award

For more than 100 years, APSA has recognized excellence across the discipline. Its awards for scholarship and service are among the most distinguished in the discipline. Now the association has a formal means to recognize excellence in political science education.

We are proud to announce the establishment of the first ever APSA Distinguished Teaching Award.

The award will honor the outstanding contributions of an individual to undergraduate and/or graduate teaching of political science at an institution of higher learning. It will credit accomplishments aimed at enhancing teaching in the profession and it will recognize contributions spanning years or an entire career.

Call for Nominations:

Nominations for the first award open on October 15, 2011. The first award will be given during the 2012 Annual Meeting in New Orleans, Louisiana. Nominations from departments, chairs, colleagues, and self-nominations are welcome.

"By helping my students understand that group differences still matter in America, I am preparing them to live in our increasingly diverse society and forge solutions that will draw us closer together."

*- Alvin Tillery
Rutgers University*

EDUCATION, PROFESSIONAL, & DIVERSITY INITIATIVES

The American Political Science Association (founded in 1903) is a membership association that provides resources for research, networking, and professional development to its 15,000 members in the U.S. and abroad in the political science discipline. The APSA Office of Education, Professional and Minority Initiatives offers resources to students and faculty alike. APSA is dedicated to the promotion of excellence in the areas of education, professional development, and diversity.

Please share the following list of APSA programs with your departments, colleagues, and students and visit www.apsanet.org/education for more information.

Education Programs and Initiatives

One key component of APSA's mission is to support political science education and to promote high quality teaching and education about politics and government:

- Graduate Student Outreach
- Grants, Funding and Fellowship Resources
- Political Science Education Organized Section
- Committee on Civic Education and Engagement
- Teaching and Learning Conference

Professional Development Programs

APSA seeks to enhance the professional development of its practitioners by providing academic and non-academic opportunities for members:

- APSA Mentoring Initiative
- APSA Annual Meeting
- Undergraduate/Graduate Student Membership
- eJobs: APSA's online job database
- eJobs Annual Meeting Placement Interview Service
- Career Resources and pamphlets
- Job Candidate Questions to Ask
- Professional networking tools and newsletters

APSA Minority and Diversity Initiatives

Part of the APSA mission is to enhance diversity in the political science discipline. To that end, APSA provides several programs and resources to assist students from underrepresented groups who are considering an advanced degree in political science.

- APSA Minority Fellows Program (MFP) (seniors or MA students)
- Ralph Bunche Summer Institute (RBSI) (juniors)
- Minority Student Recruitment Project (MSRP)
- APSA Mentoring Initiative
